Will Says Hoover Licked Politicians and See 'em Crawl

(Special To The News)

KANSAS CITY, June 18. — Did you ever see a town after they had just finished sweeping out a convention?

The Republicans have all gone back home to collect. You know they don't pay off till after you have voted.

The farmers that were supposed to be so mad, are all in a good humor now. They got a good rain today. That's their only relief.

The Republicans picked absolutely the strongest ticket they could have. Hoover has a tremendous popularity with the people.

It was the politicians that were against him. He licked them. Now watch 'em start telling how great he is.

On to Houston to nominate a vice presidential candidate.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Arrangements are being made by a considerable number of churches of New Castle for holding but one church service per day during the summer months of July and August. The morning services will be held, while the evening service will be omitted.

Sunday was a perfect summer day. It was warm, the sun shone, and all in all it was a real June day. This morning, the weatherman has again turned on the fawcett, and rain is falling.

Trans-Atlantic flights are beginning to pall on the public. The hop-off of Miss Earhart in her plane yesterday for the Atlantic flight didn't create any great stir. Reports this morning indicate that the flight has been successful.

Even traffic cops forget the rules now and then when they are not on duty, Pa Newc observed on Sunday.

Daily vacation bible school is being opened today in the Croton district. These schools are well worth while, and will probably be conducted in other churches of the city during the summer.

Hoye's plane was out in a field along the Youngstown road on Saturday afternoon, indications being that a flight was to be attempted.

Work is progressing rapidly on the construction of the Nurses' home being erected in conjunction with the Jameson Memorial hospital, on Leasure and Wilmington avenues. The home faces Wilmington avenue, and will provide wonderful quarters for the nurses of the new hospital.

Regardless of what the weather conditions have been during the spring the flower beds about the city and county seem to have developed just the same. There are hundreds of beautiful flower exhibitions around homes of the community at the present time.

Traffic officers usually make it a business to pay considerable attention to newly paved streets. Temptation to speed seems to come greater to motorists on newly improved streets. The wide paving on Sheridan avenue seems unusually tempting, and the traffic cops have been giving the street considerable extra attention.

Lawrence county farmers are beginning to pool their wool clip for the year. It will require about three days to get it all in storage here. Probably some 60,000 pounds will be pooled in this city this week.

Wheat and rye crops have developed wonderfully during the past week or so. Wheat will be ready for harvesting early, according to present indications.

An old fashioned two wheeled cart, drawn by a horse, was noted parked on North Mercer street, near the post-office this morning. It is the first time in ten years that Pa Newc has noted an outfit like that. Looked to yours truly that the fellow that took a chance on riding the seat of this conveyance, was nearly as brave as some of the airplane riders.

Dilks, the local marathon runner will need to do his best to win the race in which he has challenged the other noted runners of the cross-continent derby, Newton and Gavuzzi.

Bad Weather Is Encountered In Plane Trip

Pilot Stultz Of "Friendship" Says Plane Flew Blind Most Of Way

PLANE WORKS WELL DESPITE WEATHER

Fliers Did Not Know Just Where They Were When They Landed

(International News Service)

LLANELLY, CARMARTHENSHIRE, Wales, June 18.—Beset by fog and bad weather, the trans-Atlantic monoplane Friendship "flew blind" most of the way across from Newfoundland to Wales, Pilot Stultz declared here this afternoon.

After Miss Amelia Earhart, Pilot Stultz and Mechanic Louis Gordon had emphatically declared they would not leave the plane, Stultz changed his mind and came ashore to try to speed up the search for airplane gasoline.

Bad Trip.

Miss Earhart and Gordon remained in the plane.

"No one was ever more thankful than I to see the coast of Wales' said Stultz. We had a bad trip all the way. In fact we were flying blind most of the way."

The flyers did not know just exactly where they had descended until after the plane had settled upon the water. Stultz continued:

"I handled the joy stick throughout the whole trip: I had considerable difficulty keeping the course because of the fog and rain. For some time

Fisherman Cal Remains Silent

No Information Forthcoming As To Success Of President's Fishing

REPORTERS BEGIN TO BE SKEPTICAL

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SUPERIOR, Wis., June 18.—The reputation of President Coolidge as a fisherman is considerably dimmed, if circumstantial evidence is to be believed.

The summer White House is located on that portion of the Brule river running through the estate of the late Henry Clay Pierce. No less than 17 hatcheries were established by Pierce, and the Brule is so well stocked that the troup almost bump each other in their meanderings. It is rumored they sit up and beg for flies, worms, etc.

The president has been fishing on two of the three days he has spent thus far in the north woods. Ordinarily judging from the past two vacations—he is only too proud to display his catch for the benefit of the photographers and let the newspaper reporters know exactly how much the biggest one weighed.

To date, however, the results of this year's efforts have been veiled in the deepest secrecy. Repeated efforts on the part of newspapermen to ascertain the number of fish caught, if any, have resulted in complete failure. "Several," said Edward T. Clark, his personal secretary, evasively; "some," parried Colonel E. W. Starling, the secret service man who fishes with the president.

Today the president plans to make his deferred visit to the temporary executive offices in Superior.

Detroit Man Found Dead In Garage, Is Victim Of Fumes

(International News Service)

DETROIT, June 18.—Mrs. Mary Humphries' visit here from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., to see her son George, ended in tragedy today when George was found dead in his car.

Many times during the course of three days Mrs. Humphries knocked on the door of George's flat but could get no answer.

Finally, with William and another son, Robert, she instituted a search for George.

He was found dead, seated at the wheel of his car in the garage. The ignition was on.

It was not certain whether George died from carbon monoxide or natural causes but police are satisfied he was not murdered.

See Big Increase In Coal Shipments Over Local Lines To Lakes

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—Reduced freight rates on lake cargo coal from the Pittsburgh district to northwestern points went into effect today on the Pennsylvania, New York Central and other lines.

On June 26 the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pittsburgh and West Virginia lines by special permission will begin operations under similar reduced rates.

The special permission was granted last Saturday when the Interstate Commerce commission in Washington waived the usual requirement of 30 days notice of posting the new rate schedules and allowed both the B. & O. and the Pittsburgh & West Virginia lines to reduce the rates on a 10 days notice.

These roads, which withheld the granting of reduced rates until the commission approved the action of the other northern roads making the cut of 20 cents a ton on coal from this district; gained the consent of the commission after renewing their plea on Friday.

With the new rates in effect, coal operators in this district are predicting shipments to show a considerable increase in volume until December 1, the end of the open season on the Great Lakes.

County Officers Arrive Before Wedding Occurs; Delay Making Arrests

Not even weddings escape the hawk-like eye of County Detective William G. Fleming. Not that Fleming is against weddings, fact is he believes in them, but they must be non-alcoholic.

Saturday evening, working upon information received, the county detective and his aides swooped down upon the home of Steve Miskales, near the old country club outside Ellwood City. A search of the place revealed a still and a large quantity of liquor, the officers say. Because the ceremony had not yet been consummated he permitted it to proceed and following it placed Miskales, father of the bride under arrest for violation of the Snyder Act. He is out on $1,500 bail.

Following that arrest he visited Aaron Buskin in the same vicinity and found some liquor. Buskin is also out on $1,500 bail.

Sunday evening Nick Cotilee of 106 Division street, New Castle, was placed under arrest on a charge of selling wine. He got bail.

R. A. Gibbs of Steubenville, O., is technically under arrest but actually is in the hospital. The man is alleged to have been driving while intoxicated and while on the Wampum road, near Moravia, his car went into the ditch. He was the only passenger in the car and as he was injured to such an extent that he was removed to the hospital. When he is discharged from there he will be arraigned.

Mexican Aviator Reaches New York

Mexican Flier Completes Short Hop From Washington To New York Today

(International News Service)

MITCHEL FIELD, N. Y., June 18.—Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexican ace, landed here at 10 o'clock this morning.

Carranza hopped off from Bolling field, Washington, earlier in the morning. Carranza made a good-will flight from Mexico City to Washington, being forced down in North Carolina by fog, although he landed his plane without serious damage.

Major H. C. Davidson, commandant of Bolling field, headed a flight of three planes which escorted Carranza.

PILOT'S MOTHER IS OVERJOYED

Mrs. Clara Stultz Happy That Son Is Safely Across Atlantic Ocean

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSBURG, Pa., June 18.—"The happiest mother in the world"—Mrs. Clara Stultz, gray-haired mother of Wilmer Stultz, pilot of the trans-Atlantic plane Friendship—"sends all her love to her dear son."

That's the message Mrs. Stultz asked International News Service to send to Llanelly, Wales, where the plane and its crew of three landed today.

"I can't express my joy very well," she said, "but I'm happy—so happy, and I'm glad it's over and Wilmer is safe."

Mrs. Stultz spent the night before her radio in this little central Pennsylvania village, eagerly alert at each meagre dispatch which told of her son's progress.

Mrs. Frances Straitiff, her daughter and next door neighbor, was at her side, as was Will Wilte, her nephew.

"She was worried, but she's mighty happy now," said Wilte. "She's so happy she can't say much, but her message will tell Wilmer how we all feel." said Wilte.

Hoover Starts Preparing For His Campaign

Republican Strategy Board Meets With Hoover Today To Outline Plans

OPTIMISTIC NOTE CLEARLY SOUNDED

Hoover Elated Over Statement From Senator McNary Regarding Farm Relief

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Surrounded by the Republican board of strategy, Herbert Hoover today started to map out the battle plans for the campaign.

James W. Good, of Iowa, Hoover's convention manager, Secretary of the Interior Work, one of his field marshals, and Walter F. Brown, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, Ohio political leader, during the week will analyze all details of the situation and with the Republican nominee determine upon a plan of combat.

Optimistic Meeting

The first meeting of Hoover and his general staff since the nomination was a high spirited and optimistic gathering. Hoover's managers expressed confidence of success in November, declared that G. O. P. nominee would not lose the farm belt Republicans and that he had a chance of breaking into the well-near impregnable Democratic strongholds of the solid South.

The strategy board was elated over the statement of Senator McNary (R), of Oregon, co-author of the vetoed McNary-Haugen bill, and asserted that it would go far toward allaying any doubt in the minds of the farmers as to the Hoover policies.

Elisco Placed On Trial For Di Rauso Death

Faces Murder Charge In Connection With Shooting During Quarrel

DEFENDANT'S PLEA IS SELF-DEFENSE

Frank Elisco, charged with the murder of Antonio Di Rauso, was placed on trial before Judge Hildebrand at court this morning.

Work of selecting the jury started shortly before 11 o'clock. Each of the jurors called was examined as to knowledge of the case, and also as to whether or not they had formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant.

The Commonwealth is represented by District Attorney J. Elder Bryan, Samuel L. Clark and W. L. Alvase, the latter of Youngstown, being secured at the instance of friends of Di Rauso. The defense is represented by Attorneys A. Martin Graham, H. A. Wilkison and Thomas W. Dickey.

The crime for which Elisco is being tried was committed on the night of November 20, 1927. Di Rauso, Elisco and a couple of friends had been out on a drinking party during the night. Toward morning they returned to the vicinity of the New Castle hospital and got out of the car. An altercation started between Elisco and Di Rauso, which ended in the shooting of Di Rauso by Elisco. The bullet took effect in Di Rauso's abdomen, penetrating the intestines, and causing his death a short time afterwards at the New Castle hospital.

After the shooting Elisco fled and was not heard from again until a few days ago when he returned to New Castle and in company with Attorney Dickey went to the sheriff's office where he surrendered. Elisco will claim that the shooting was in self defense.

Pool Room Owners Confer With Mayor

Daylight Time Closing Hour To Be Observed On Saturday Nights

Proprietors of the thirty poolrooms of the city held an interesting session with Mayor William H. Gillespie and Chief of Police C. C. Horner about eleven o'clock this morning, in the police court room.

While the session was the result in a measure of the city to collect the ten dollars a table tax, in which it must be stated that the city was unusually successful, there was also another important reason for the conference.

It was to decide the question of closing Saturday nights. The suggestion was made by the mayor that the poolroom owners agree to close at twelve o'clock fast time instead of one o'clock fast time, which would be equivalent to the regular closing time under Eastern Standard time and which runs them over into Sunday.

The owners voted unanimously to observe this earlier closing hour. They will continue to remain open until one o'clock week days.

It will be interesting to the public at large to know that there are approximately 120 pool and billiard tables in the poolrooms of the city, which net the city $1,200 in taxes.

MISS EARHART AND COMPANIONS ARE SUCCESSFUL

drifting through the haze with the stars and stripes upon it.

"It is the Friendship," was the cry which went up immediately.

There was a rush toward the waterside.

Ends 2,400-Mile Flight

Thus ended the historic 2,400-mile flight of the Friendship from Trepassey Bay, N. F., bearing Miss Amelia Earhart, Boston social worker; Pilot Wilmer Stultz and Mechanic Louis Gordon, who had written a new page in the history of American aviation enterprise.

When the Friendship touched the surface of the water Pilot Stultz taxied toward a buoy, to which the plane was made fast.

Police boats and numerous small craft immediately set out for the plane to take off the three flyers.

By using marine glasses the monoplane could be seen on the lifting swell of the water, riding easily and gracefully. There were no distress signals flying.

Owing to the heavy rain and the roughness of the sea, the small boats made all possible haste to pick up Miss Earhart and her companions.

Go On to Southampton

"We made it," were the jubilant words of Miss Earhart.

Pilot Stultz and Mechanic Gordon grinned their delight over the successful termination of the long and hazardous voyage.

When the police boats ranged alongside of the Friendship Miss Earhart and her two companions said they did not intend to go ashore. They asked that gasoline be brought to the plane, as the fuel supply had run dangerously low. Miss Earhart said they had decided to continue to Southampton as soon as the machine was refueled.

Miss Earhart herself hailed the first motor boat which approached the Friendship.

"We are short of fuel," shouted the woman flyer. When the boat drew closer Miss Earhart urgently asked that 50 gallons of "aviation gas" be obtained immediately and that it be brought out to the Friendship.

"We want to get enough to be sure of reaching Southampton," added the aviatrix.

Persons on the motor boat suggested that the crew of the plane go ashore.

We will wait out here for the gas," replied Stultz and Gordon.

Stultz had his machine under perfect control. After flying over this town the plane passed out over the inlet and flew in the direction of Estuary. The Friendship circled the Estuary at slightly decreasing altitude and then dropped lightly upon the surface of the water.

In the belief that the flyers would come ashore a large crowd gathered on the water side to greet them. Soon, however, a boat came back from the Friendship and reported that the American flyers refused to leave their "ship".

"They said they would hop off again for Southampton as soon as they obtained a fresh supply of petrol," announced the boatmen.

This news was a big disappointment to the townspeople, but they lingered along the waterfront, hoping that the flyers would change their minds.

Immediately upon the return of the boat a wild search was started throughout the town for gasoline suitable for airplane use. Since "aviation gas" is practically unknown here, it was not certain whether a supply could be obtained in the Llanelly district.

Meanwhile the Friendship, with the flyers still on board, was riding at anchor two miles down the inlet from this town. It had been brought inshore to a point about 350 yards from land. Low tide prevented it from approaching any closed.

Auto Accident On New Brighton Road

Richard Gibbs of East Liverpool, O., was admitted to the Shenango Valley hospital Sunday afternoon for treatment of injuries sustained in an auto accident on the New Brighton road when the car in which he was riding was struck by another machine coming in the opposite direction and crowded into the ditch.

The young man sustained a laceration of the scalp and of his right leg. He was brought to this city by a passing motorist. The driver of the car which struck him was not learned. He was discharged from the hospital today and removed to his home.

Big Auto Toll Over Week-End

Nine Persons Killed In Pennsylvania, Eight Killed Near State Lines

FIFTY-FOUR ARE REPORTED INJURED

(International News Service)

Nine persons lost their lives in automobile accidents in Pennsylvania over the week-end, while eight others were killed in accidents just over the New York and New Jersey state borders, the International News Service weekly survey today revealed.

Fifty-four persons were injured, bringing the toll to the highest figure for the season. Perfect motoring weather contributed to heavy traffic, responsible in some instances for the accidents.

Two persons were killed and one hurt at Harrisburg; two were killed and three injured in the Pittsburgh district; three were killed and four injured near Warren, Pa., when an auto plunged through a bridge railing, while one person was killed and three injured in the Philadelphia district.

Williamsport reported one killed, fourteen persons were injured at Berwick and one each at Lewistown and Lancaster.

At Jamestown, just over the New York border, three Erie men and two Jamestown girls were killed when their cars struck a train, while three persons were killed in New Jersey, just over the state line from Philadelphia.

They said it was especially gratifying coming a few hours after the attack on Hoover and the Republican platform by Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska who held that the farmers had been betrayed.

Seek National Chairman

Among the points discussed today related to the choice of a national chairman. Both Good and Secretary Work have been suggested, although there seemed to be a leaning toward the former. The chairman will be selected formally by a meeting of the national Republican committee here Thursday.

Hoover's resignation from the cabinet, the formal notification ceremonies, when he will leave Washington for Palo Alto, Calif., and other details were considered.

Hoover spent a quiet Sabbath, receiving a few personal friends and enjoying a reunion which brought all members of his immediate family together for the first time in several months. Allan Hoover arrived from Kansas City early in the day.

With his family Hoover attended services at the modest ivy-covered Friends meeting house on I street. The entire congregation numbered eighty six. Characteristic of the Friends there was no demonstration for Secretary Hoover, although the congregation offered its congratulations in a body. The first fifteen minutes of the service was a "period of silence."

Years ago old time Quaker meetings members of the congregation, over which presided no preacher, remained in silence until some Friend was "moved by the Spirit," whereupon he would pray or offer an informal sermon. In the orthodox meetings this custom has been abandoned.

Hoover held a number of important conferences today, but his manager, James W. Good of Iowa, was detained in Chicago by the illness of his wife. Good was expected to be in Washington sometime during the week.

Campaign plans were discussed by Hoover with Secretary of the Interior Work, one of his leaders; Representative Tilson (R) of Connecticut; Undersecretary of the Treasury Ogden L. Mills expected to handle the campaign in New York and Elliott Cox, a Hoover leader in North Carolina.

After lunch with Secretary Work, Hoover will talk with Secretary of War Davis.

Another visitor during the day was W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Senator Curtis of Kansas, the vice presidential nominee, was expected here tomorrow and will talk the situation over with Hoover.

Relatives Are Enthused Over Amelia's Flight

Mother And Sister Are Much Relieved—Sweetheart Was Quite Confident

(International News Service)

MEDFORD, Mass., June 18.—"Wonderful, wonderful, we are very thankful," exclaimed the mother and sister of Miss Amelia Earhart today when they heard the news that the transatlantic airplane Friendship had spanned the Atlantic.

"I knew she would do it," said Samuel Chapman, fiance of Miss Earhart at his home in Marblehead. Chapman said he would cable his congratulations immediately.

Chapman has spent a restless night of worry over the safety of his sweetheart.

Mrs. Earhart, who was nearly in a state of collapse when her daughter and her flying companions unexpectedly took off from the East Boston airport two weeks ago, had completely recovered today. She said she was certain that Amelia would get across the Atlantic and that she had made up her mind not to worry.

Both mother and daughter, Muriel, were in good spirits as news bulletins over the radio told of the progress of the Friendship. Later they took a much needed rest, denying themselves to all callers.

Chapman, who first met Amelia when the latter was learning to fly in Los Angeles, also listened intently at his radio through the night for latest bulletins from the girl who is to be his bride. "We are confident that the good ship will get her over," said Chapman. "It will bring glory to those aboard who deserve glory for their plucky feat." During their early courtship in Los Angeles, Miss Earhart used to drop love billets from an airplane to the office building where young Chapman worked.

Council Opens Bids For Several Projects

Engineer Recommends Second Highest Bidder; No Action Taken As Yet

Council convened formally at city hall today, opened bids on two proposed projects and delayed awarding a contract on a third. Several ordinances were considered during committee meeting and reported out favorably and after being printed the bills will be adopted.

Council received a recommendation from Engineer Miller in which he recommended the awarding of the Cascade street grading job be awarded to the second responsible bidder, Olsen Company, at a bid of $7,426.50.

Smith & McQuiston had presented the lowest bid of $7,150.00 but Miller in his discussion with councilmen said that last year the firm had delayed several contracts, and Councilman Reeves deemed council should further consider the situation.

The bids for construction of a sanitary sewer in Vine street, approximately 405 feet, were opened and on the face of the bids, Olsen Company was low with $1,593. Elder & Ferry bid $2,186.50 and the city engineer's estimate for the work is $1,474.50. The bids were referred to committee.

Liberty street sanitary sewer system bids were opened and the city engineer estimated the system which is expected to drain a section not now cared for will cost $28,105.00. Four firms presented prices.

On the face of the bids opened M. J. Scanlon is low with a price of $29,400.10. Other bidders: Elder & Ferry, $34,275; Olsen Company, $43,485, and Woods & Golder, $45,119. The bids were sent to committee pending a check by the city engineer.

An ordinance which has laid in committee since 1920, was reported from committee. It provides for the building of a sanitary sewer in Cascade street, north to Butler avenue thence south along Cascade street to Stanton avenue.

Two other men were taken before Brinton but were released on their own recognizance to appear as witnesses. No charge was made against Baney as it appeared that his visitors had the liquor.

Dauphin Court Gives Ruling In Bonds Issuance

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 18—The Dauphin county court of common pleas today ruled that the issuance of bonds to replace those refunded was without constitutional authority and Auditor General Edward Martin and State Treasurer Samuel S. Lewis were enjoined from issuing such bonds.

The case was brought by William M. Montgomery of Philadelphia, a taxpayer, to test the legality of the proposed issuance of $3,000,000 worth of bonds to replace an equal amount of refunded securities.

The decision also declared that under the constitution as amended November 5, 1918, the legislature "has no authority to authorize the issue of bonds to more than an aggregate amount of fifty millions of dollars."

The ruling further declared that Governor John S. Fisher was without constitutional authority when he directed Lewis and Martin on May 29 last to "prepare and print bonds" to replace the $3,000,000 worth that had been refunded.

The case will be carried to the supreme court, since such action was agreed upon, regardless of the decision of the Dauphin county court.

GOLDEN WEDDING EVENT OBSERVED

Back in 1878, June 16, to be exact, there was a wedding in New Bethlehem, Clarion county, Pa. And in 1928, again on June 16, the golden anniversary of this wedding was celebrated in New Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry being the celebrants, but this time with children, grand children and one great-grandchild taking part in the occasion.

The golden wedding anniversary was held Saturday, June 16, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry at 1509 Pennsylvania avenue, and until one was informed which was the couple celebrating their 50th year together as man and wife there was some doubt, for they look many years younger. A spirit of co-operation and the will to be happy in the half century has carried them this far, and by all appearances they will be here for their diamand jubilee 25 years from now.

Thirty-five guests were present to aid in the joyous occasion, and at six o'clock a wedding dinner was held. Many gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Henry and late in the afternoon C. H. Buell, captain of the Shenango Tin Mill police, came in and presented them with a token from the police force, of which Mr. Henry is a member. Others outside the family who had a part in the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. William Kerber, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry have eight children living: Henry, of Hammond, Ind.; William, of Honolulu, H. I.; Bert and Theodore of New Castle, Mrs. James Wallash, Mrs. Harry McClelland, Mrs. Clyde Boston and Mrs. Norman Ketzel, all of New Castle. In addition there are 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Before her marriage Mrs. Henry was Miss Cora Sherman and the ceremony performed 50 years ago was consummated by Rev. Bone of New Bethlehem. For the golden wedding anniversary the home was tastefully decorated in white and gold.

HOOVER AND CURTIS

THE oft repeated charge that the "politicians name the president" seems to have been most effectually squelched in the nomination of Herbert Hoover for president, by the Republican party.

For the first time in many years it appears that the people have succeeded in naming as their candidate for the presidency the man they wanted. This time there can be no hints of "back room nominations" nor of political leaders acquiesced in his nomination was merely a grandiloquent gesture, a bowing to the inevitable.

No man has approached the presidency in generations so eminently fitted by training and experience, as Herbert Hoover. Born of the humblest parentage and reared in poverty he typifies American opportunity.

His rise to fame and fortune has been won through an ability that grows larger as it is scrutinized. The man's record of achievement is colossal, so bewildering, that it seems that some kindly fate has directed the delegates of the Republican party in his nomination.

In 1920 he was a popular hero. At the Chicago convention it was said that "the galleries wanted Hoover, but the politicians didn't." The politicians didn't want him this time either, but the voice of the people was so insistent, so compelling that those masters of political strategy could but bow and take him.

The nomination of Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas was the climax to a successful coup. His rise to the United States Senate rivals anything Horatio Alger ever wrote. Through his veins course the blood of the original Americans and from an Indian camp he climbed to the floor leader of the United States Senate.

Hoover and Curtis. What a combination! A pair of men qualified in every respect for the offices they seek, a ticket that every Republican can endorse without the slightest hesitation.

If the American people want ability and efficiency in the White House and in the vice president's chair for the next four years, the answer is Hoover and Curtis.

SUMMER TOURING

BECAUSE the American people love to travel and are able and willing to pay for a generous measure of comfort, summer touring has developed rapidly and has become a business activity of world importance.

Last year tourists from the United States left $200,000,000 in Canada where they went to find pleasure. About the same amount was left in France by Americans who prefer touring abroad. Other large amounts were left in countries all over the world, for the summer traveler visits all lands. These figures were compiled by the department of commerce, that bureau also making public the fact that in summer touring at home our people spent sums aggregating $155,000,000. The summer vacations and tours of the American people last year cost about $775,000,000.

This year summer travel is expected to be in greater volume than last year. It is under way, both in touring at home and in foreign travel. In the latter the bookings for the summer are very large and cover the entire season. There will be little space unoccupied when the steamers leave American shores. For the home touring there are more automobiles than ever before, more people keen for another trip, more inducements to travel, and there will be many thousands added to the numbers shown last year.

One may find an interesting tour at home, no matter in which direction one may care to go, and one is certain to find an abundance of comfortable accommodations provided. The summer touring parties have brought new and small cities and they are prepared to care for visitors pleasantly. There are those who feel they must go abroad if they have a real summer vacation, but there are great numbers who care to see their own country first, have found that sort of touring delightful in the past and will try it again.

Doubtless touring will reach a new high point this summer, more money will be spent, more miles traveled, more pleasure found, and a larger measure of satisfaction derived. The volume of touring is proof that the American people have decided to spend a portion of their time in play and that decision is of vast importance. Business is carried on at high speed. We need a vacation, freedom from the ordinary cares, and that is what summer touring provides.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:33. Sun rises tomorrow 4:28.

Now if the Democrats get busy and get their candidate nominated the farmers can get busy with their farm work, and the town folks can get away from their radios.

Some of the birds who attend the political conventions will not find out who was nominated until they get home and some one tells 'em.

Pedestrians could prevent much confusion if they would indicate by signals whether they preferred to be knocked down by eastbound or westbound traffic.

We honestly believe it is easier to be merciful than it is to be just.

American Wives

The past president of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs claims that a man's chance of getting an ideal wife are only three out of ten. According to her statement, American wives fall into five classes: Home makers or "Ideal" type 30 per cent; Jazz or "Can Opener" type 20 per cent; Naging type 15 per cent; Drudge type 20 per cent; Baby Doll type 15 per cent. But most women would turn out to be good home makers, she said, if they were supplied with "the makings"—that is good plumbing, well built kitchens and more and better labor-saving devices of all sorts. To which our only comment is Amen!

An investigation usually discloses that the victim of somebody's carelessness is still dead.

Another great combination of movie picture and theatrical interests is planned. No doubt this is for the purpose of giving the people cheaper and better entertainment. Uh-huh! Also ha, ha!

Some radio speeches we have heard were as dull as the well known thud.

A druggist in New York, with a roll of one thousand beans in his jeans was arrested for putting lead slugs in a subway fare box to beat the railroad out of a nickle and two more of the slugs were found in his pockets. Oh, wham de deeodle wham!

In many cities stiff penalties are handed out to autoists whose automolies make a smoke that stinks to high heaven and who blow their horns unnecessarily. And we think that is mighty good stuff—we don't mean the smoke and the horn blowing, but the stiff fine that goes as a penalty for it.

A story a Harlansburg young lady told on herself. It is the honest truth. She is still wearing a dress she wore when she was 12 years old. The material is so good that she doesn't want to throw the dress away, has no younger sister to give it to. Each year she says, in order to keep pace with the march of fashions, she takes up the dress at the hem. So it annually gets shorter.

We noticed an item telling "How Bees Smell." That does not interest us at all. We are more interested in someway of preventing them from sitting down on a feller.

If you want to know how little farm relief is understood, just ask the next half dozen people you meet their opinion of it. You will find that some think it is some kind of a new machine that will pick potato bugs—or something just as ridiculous.

Morning

Dishes to wash and beds to make,
Rolls to mix and a birthday cake;
Socks to darn and curtains to hem,
Gracious, what have I done with them!
Porch to sweep, and a peddler, gay—
"Any brushes from me today?"
Notes to write and a neighbor's knock
Goodness me, it's twelve o'clock!

And bandits staged a bank robbery in Kansas City while the Republican convention was on there. Several people were shot and one policeman killed. There are always people who want to muss up everything.

When the hot days come one sort of wish Santa Claus had brought a bathing suit or some other light stuff for wearing purposes.

And we honestly believe there are some birds so dumb that they think a political party is a social affair.

And some terrible singing still gets a lot of applause, for what reason we do not know.

A fellow said he set a trap for his wife when he tried to catch a mouse in the pantry.

Hoover and Curtis.
Prosperity—More Of It.
Coolidge Knew It.
Safe At Fifty.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

The Republican ticket now complete, reads Hoover and Curtis. Senator Curtis from Kansas, whose genial, "Howdy, men," is known to thousands of friends, was nominated on the first ballot, with 1052 votes.

This puts an out and out farmer's candidate on the ticket. It does not mean dissatisfaction with Gen Dawes, for there is none.

The Curtis nomination is an effort to "do something for the farmer."

The Republican slogan for this campaign is to be CONTINUED PROSPERITY—AND MORE OF IT.

That's enough of a slogan. People decline to think about more than one thing at a time. And when prosperity is the issue they don't want any other.

If Democrats are wise they will promise "continued prosperity—with a great deal more of it than the Republicans ever dreamed of."

In his fine telegram of congratulation to Herbert Hoover, President Coolidge expresses the thought of many citizens, "Your great ability and wide experience will enable you to serve our country with marked distinction."

President Coolidge has known for months that Herbert Hoover would be nominated. The President, who has been a candidate for office twenty times and never defeated, understands politics.. That is more than you can say for some gentlemen from New York state and elsewhere.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company Friday insured a man past 50 for $1,500,000. A few generations ago, when the second biggest city in France had no inhabitant over 50 years of age, such insuring would have been financially suicidal Men live longer, intelligence counts. A wise man at 50 is a safer risk than a fool at 25. And the Metropolitan has promoted longer living by intelligent health advertising.

Our prosperity is real In May General Motors broke all records delivering 224,094 cars, the third successive record breaking month, as announced by President Alfred P. Sloan, Jr. The total sale of cars in May was more than 443,000.

Henry Ford is now turning out his new car at the rate of 3,000 a day. But there will be a shortage, in good makes.

This country needs 5,000,000 new cars every year at a minimum, even if the total number exceeds the present figures, 24,000,000. Get your car.

In New York a young man, brought into court by his father, admitted that he had an income of $400 a week, and employed his father as hostler to take care of his saddle horses. Delegates, according to H. I. Phillips, watch their steps in hotel lobbies. Several have cut their feet on fragments of broken gin bottles. When a delegate or welcoming friend lets the bottle slip out of the paper crossing the lobby, it breaks on the stone floor.

However, the Republican platform says "rigid enforcement of the prohibition law." So there is nothing to worry about.

Fundamentalists will read this with joy, and hold it under the noses of doubting Modernists.

The Munson Liner Munamar caught a big tiger shark. Hauled on deck it expelled from its stomach and mouth a good sized turtle. The turtle is at this moment alive and swimming in New York's aquarium.

If an inferior modern shark can swallow a turtle and return it alive, why should not a huge fish, created especially for the purpose, swallow Jonah, take him ashore and release him less injured than he would have been by a ride in New York's crowded subway?

COUNT THE COST

Count the cost before you buy,
Count the cost before you do,
This will save you many a sigh,
This will keep your record true.

Pleasure wears a smiling face,
Cheap her trinkets seem to be,
But who follows her in chase
Oft returns to misery.

Life is long, and sticky shame
Clings to garments bright and fair;
Once dishonor stains your name,
Long that mark you'll have to wear.

Count the cost of every smile,
Count the cost in pain and tears.
Joy that lasts a little while
May bring shame which lasts for years.

Bible Thought For Today

OUR KNOWLEDGE — I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. —Psalm 139:14.

INSENSATE AND IRRATIONAL

These words were used, not by some soap box orator, not by some standing minority report, not by some fanatical pacifist or Russian bolshevik, but they were the utterance of Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder, one of the old sea dogs of the United States Navy.

The words sound rather extreme and on the whole they are zippy words. The whole sentence he used was that he condemned the "insensate and irrational competition in armaments among nations."

"I believe that further limitation of armaments," he continued, " is one of the most practical 'next steps' that may be taken in seeking a formula whereby war may be avoided."

"Limitation is a deterrent in that there can be no sudden fatal attack by one nation upon another."

At the outbreak of the late war when there was widespread enlisting in the United States army, scientific gentlemen asserted that "the majority of people in this country are morons." That is, that they had the intelligence of children of twelve.

What is intelligence? Perhaps it can best be defined as the ability to learn from our mistakes. A fool steps in the same hole twice and keeps bumping his nose right along on the same post. Even a cat or a dog when they try one thing and get hurt by it learn not to try that thing again.

This is about the only way the world keeps from burning up on hot stoves. People know by experience that a hot stove is not a nice thing to handle and they give it a wide berth.

Fools and morons keep putting their hands on hot stoves and consequently those hands are always scorched.

Now this matter of national defense has been a subject of interest

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

ANOTHER EXPERIENCE LESSON.

The determination of many people to speculate in the Stock of every successful business enterprise of the Nation, regardless of the advice of those directing the enterprise is most vividly brought home in the collapse of the boom in Bancitaly Corporation stock. It is estimated that nearly half a billion dollars in paper profits, margins and all that goes with speculative losses was lost by Bancitaly stock gamblers during the first two weeks in June. That amount may be somewhat exaggerated but the losses ran into the hundreds of millions.

A. P. Giannini, the President of the Bancitaly Corporation sent out a personal letter early in the year to every important bank and trust company in New York and California, requesting that no loans be made on Bancitaly stock, where the money was to be used for speculative purposes, but it had no effect on the speculator. Many Bankers took Mr. Giannini's advice and passed the advice on to their customers; some did not. In no other way could the public have plunged so heavily in this stock than with the assistance of marginal loans made to the public by brokers assisted by Bankers.

The result of the loans was to encourage speculation in Bancitaly stock. Those promoting the boom are said to have made arrangements with certain unscrupulous brokers by which facilities, more or less onerous, were offered to buyers to carry the stock. In most cases the investor or speculator was asked to pay interest of one per cent a month, besides a commission of two per cent for securing the loan.

Those who tried to raise the necessary funds at the banks were pretentious in their demands. Requests for loans of $5,000,000, $10,000,000 and even $20,000,000 were submitted. Only recently a $20,000,000 loan was offered to a bank on Bancitaly stock at ten per cent per annum with fifty per cent margin on the stock.

A loan of $5,000,000 was to be secured by the stock at two shares for one, with such a discount as made the rate virtually fourteen per cent. It is not known how many of these loans were actually made.

The Bancitaly Corporation itself had proposals to exploit the organization or to use its name for unsound purposes. From time to time schemes have been submitted to the corporation which upon investigation have proved undesirable or dishonest. Needless to say, the corporation did not countenance any of these loan proposals and used every effort to stop them.

TWELVE GREAT

At least once a year somebody of note tries to pick the 10 or 12 greatest living persons in the world. And of course nobody can really do that. Ten distinguished scholars recently voted on the "greatest 12" and here are their selections: Edison, Mussolini, Einstein, Shaw, Ford, Paderewski, Kipling, Mme. Curie, Clemenceau, Jane Addams, Orville Wright, Marconi.

What do you think?

If the truth could only be brought to light there are men and women in obscurity who are just as great.

TORNADOES

The United States government is very helpful to its individual citizens in a great variety of ways. But once in a while it puts forth an effort at helpfulness that resembles nothing so much as throwing a cast-iron lifepreserver to a drowning man.

The other day I read a leaflet from the Press Service of the Office of Information of the United States Department of Agriculture that gave me a laugh that I carried around with me all day.

It was headed: "Tornado-resistant Building Possible, Forest Products Engineer Asserts."

It quoted one L. V. Teesdale, of the Forest Products Laboratory of the United States Department of Agriculture. Here, in brief, and shorn of useless verbiage, is Mr. Teesdale's grand idea:

Houses and other buildings should be constructed with windows or panels that would open outward. There should be outward-opening vents in the roofs, too. Hinged panels may be used in the spaces between window sills and floor. Special skylights or roof panels are suggested for roofs.

* * *

Mr. Teesdale has figured all this out as a result of deep thinking upon data furnished by the St Louis tornado last September. The reasoning is simple—too simple. Many buildings explode from within during tornadoes, on account of the sudden drop in external air pressure. Therefore, make windows that open outwardly easily, and the house won't explode.

Professor Teesdale has done a fine job of working out a theory. It makes a beautiful press service release.

BUT—did Professor Teesdale ever see a tornado? The chances are at least ten thousand to one that he hasn't seen one at very close range, anyhow. And you can't imagine a tornado, Professor. You have to see it, hear it and feel it before you realize how foolish your gentle theory of outward-swinging windows is.

* * *

I've seen six tornadoes. I've prowled about in the ruins, all night pulling dead and half-dead people out from under walls and safes and automobiles. And none of the tornadoes I've seen acted the least bit concerned about which way the windows opened.

As well talk in a laboratry of stopping the Mississippi floods with nicely-balanced stocks of newspapers. What's the use putting fancy skylights in the roof, if the tornado carries the whole house, roof and all, across two counties, and drops it in four states? Well, I know a good many folk out in the tornado belt got a good laugh out of the scheme, anyhow.

Pittsburgh Churches Demand Special Court To Review Indictments

Church Congregations In Pittsburgh Ask For Special Court To Try Those Held For Vice

Petition Cards Numbering 25,000 Ask Immediate Suspension Of Indicted Officials

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—Tabulation of approximately 25 000 petition cards asking for a special session of court to try the 167 persons indicted in the Federal grand jury liquor probe was started today by the Union Ministerial Association of Allegheny county.

The cards bear the signatures of ministers and members of the congregations of 500 Protestant churches in the Pittsburgh district.

In addition to the request for a special term of court, a demand is also made for the immediate suspension of police officials named in the indictments.

The cards, which were prepared by the Ministerial Association, were distributed at morning and night services of the 500 churches.

At a meeting today, the association will decide what method will be followed in presenting the petitions to the Federal and City authorities. Members of the Ministerial Association say that a committee may be appointed to carry a personal petition to Attorney General John G. Sargent in Washington, urging the cooperation of his department.

It is expected that it will be several days before the tabulation of the 25,000 cards is completed.

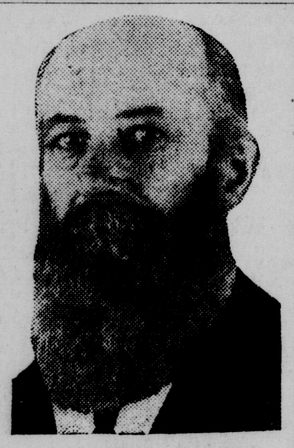
Felt Miserable All Over Before Taking Konjola

Miseries Of Kidney Trouble And Sluggish Liver Ended By New Medicine.



MR. FRANK G. RUNKLE
Seavy Photo

Many people of this city who have suffered for years and were never able to find relief, are declaring that this new Konjola medicine restored them to health. In most cases, these people have stated that Konjola so completely ended their ailments that none of their old troubles returned and they have been able to quit taking medicine entirely. This accounts for the great stream of public testimonials which are coming from men and women of this vicinity, and received at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington street, this city, where the Konjola Man is personally introducing and explaining this advanced remedy to crowds of people daily. One of the latest reports came from Mr. Frank G. Runkle, R. F. D. No. 1, Ellwood road, New Castle:

"Since taking Konjola I am free of every health trouble I ever had", said Mr. Runkle, "I am sure that there is not a better medicine in the drug store today to build up a completely rundown system."

"I have never been able to find out what made my condition so rundown. It seemed to me that the least exertion would completely tire me out. My liver was in a very sluggish condition and in spite of all kinds of laxatives that I would take, my system kept on being congested with the poisons of my body. My eyes had a yellowish color in them and the headaches used to bother me all the time. My kidneys were in a weakened condition also, and at night when I would go to bed I had to rise three or four times. This made it awful hard for me to get any rest at all and I would get up the next morning feeling worse than when I went to bed. Finally my health got so bad that I could not go to work and when I say that in two years time, I only worked 11 weeks, I am not exaggerating a bit. I had taken lots of medicines and they did not do me any good, and I was getting awful discouraged.

"I noticed in the paper one night where a case similar to mine had been relieved by Konjola and I decided to get some. I took it for only four days and I began to notice a great change in my health. I kept right on taking this medicine until I had completed a full treatment. Now my liver never bothers me at all and my bowels move with greater ease and freedom than ever before. My eyes are bright and clear now and those awful headaches that I formerly suffered are gone. My kidneys are well and strong now and when I go to bed at night, I can sleep right on thru until the next morning. When I get out of bed, I feel strong and healthy and all during the day I can work right thru without getting the least bit tired. My food digests right and I have a better appetite than before. I shall always strongly recommend Konjola so that others may gain the same benefits that I did.

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

None of them ever worked it, for the simple reason that they have all kept trying the same thing, and that thing will not work. That thing has been tried over and over countless times and has always resulted in failure. Wouldn't anybody but a moron learn from this kind of recurring fact not to try it again?

Mr. Alexander tried it. His country was marvelously armed for a time and wonderfully successful. Mr. Caesar tried it, but the country that was so admirably defended under him fell at last. See Gibbon's "Decline and Fall."

Spain was once the conquering nation of the world and admirably prepared to resist all comers. Where is Spain?

Russia had a great army.

Perhaps no nation was ever so well prepared to resist an enemy as Germany prior to the late war. Now where is Germany?

So there are so-called "practical" people who insist that the United States should maintain a tremendous army and navy and be fully prepared to resist all who attack her.

The same kind of group exists in other nations.

When will the people of the world become adult-minded enough to perceive that the only defense that amounts to anything is to have friendly relations with other people and be able to call on them to help in time of need? To be able to call on friends in time of trouble is better than all the cannon in the world.

PLAYGROUNDS

Don't think the Red Cross confines its work to war and disaster. Before the World War Belgian children had never seen a public playground. The population of Belgium is so great in proportion to size that playgrounds are greatly needed. Today Belgian children have places to play—thanks to the American Red Cross.

Annual Mission Picnic, June 28

Several Thousand Children To Enjoy Outing At Cascade Park

It won't be long now. Thursday, June 28, is the day for the annual picnic of the City Rescue Mission for mothers and kiddies and according to E. J. Berquist, superintendent of the mission there will be a crowd.

This year it will be necessary for every youngster to get a ticket from the mission in order to participate in the good things to be distributed at Cascade Park. These tickets are free but are necessary in order to avoid a rush of youngsters at the last moment.

The supplies necessary are beginning to pour in, but there is yet need for a lot of stuff before the success of the picnic is actually assured.

Easy HOUSEKEEPING

Drainpipes and toilet bowls

— must be watched

Mrs. MacGregor has prepared for you a most interesting Easy Housekeeping Chart to hang in your kitchen. Send for your free copy.

WHEN I was a young woman, keeping house was play until it came to cleaning pesky things like drainpipes and toilet bowls—and then I could have cried!

But that was years ago and women of today have an easy, safe, quick, and sure way to clean and disinfect that is nothing short of magic!

For sluggish drainpipes

This means all of them—kitchen, laundry, pantry, refrigerator and bathroom. Flush the drainpipes with a kettleful of boiling water. Follow with a cup of Clorox, then more water. Your pipes will be as clear as a bell and completely disinfected and free from odors.

Danger in toilet bowls

Toilet bowls can be a serious menace unless they are kept immaculately clean. The easy and safe way to disinfect and cleanse these danger points is to pour half a cup of Clorox into the bowl, add three tablespoonfuls of vinegar, and let stand for an hour or overnight. Also wipe the rim of the bowl under the seat with a solution of Clorox.

Sinks and dish rags

And don't forget that sinks and dish rags are a perfect heaven for germs! Follow the directions on the label for such articles and keep them sweetly clean and sterile.

Other points to watch

All food containers should be carefully watched for possible germs and unpleasant odors. Clorox will help you so easily that tricky jobs of this sort will be done without any effort at all. Wipe out coolers, refrigerators, bread boxes, and pantry shelves with a solution of Clorox to cleanse, disinfect and deodorize.

Your ways

If you have special ways of using Clorox, won't you write to me about them? And I shall keep on telling you in these columns of other easy housekeeping ways for which I have no space here.

New Bedford Troop Is High

Lawrence County Boys Make Good Record At Scout Camporee

BUTLER TROOP IS HIGHEST IN POINTS

Eight patrols of the 14 representing as many councils of the western area of region three, Boy Scouts of America, were successful in placing in the first division of the annual spring camporee, which took place at Camp Phillips, Lawrence county council's summer camp, Friday and Saturday, June 15 and 16.

Although Butler county council troop 1 placed highest in total points scored during the camporee, troop 1 of New Bedford had the distinction of making an almost perfect score in the camping project. Out of a possible 760 points, the boys representing New Bedford scored 713. The thing which eliminated them from the first division was the second project, which took place Saturday morning, declares Major R. F. Seymour, executive of region three.

The eight patrols that succeeded in placing in the first division were awarded special ribbons which will be placed on their patrol flags, while each individual participant in the meet was given a service bar.

Following is the scoring:

First Division.

Troop 1, Butler county	919
Troop 150, Allegheny county	893
Troop 22, Erie county	895
Troop 2, McKean-Potter counties	883
Troop 10, Duquesne	882
Troop 1, McKeesport	867
Troop 7, East Boroughs	859
Troop 10, Washington county	353

Second Division.

Troop 61, Mercer county	342
Troop 42, Warren county	829
Troop 1, New Bedford	829
Troop 3, Indiana county	827
Troop 34, Clarion-Venango coun.	800
Troop 17, Homestead	781

All points were based on 1,000 as a perfect score.

The patrols that placed in the second division were also awarded a somewhat different set of ribbons to place on their patrol flags, and each member got a service bar.

"The result of the camporee indicates that the boys know how to get out on an overnight hike; how to make themselves comfortable in the open, but it also shows that scoutmasters have failed to teach them thoroughly the actual stuff which is in the Boy Scout handbook. It was in the second project, made up simple second and first class tests, wherein the patrols failed. If the scoring had been taken on camping alone, 13 out of the 14 councils represented would have passed the test.

"But, all in all, the camporee was a huge success. We had ideal weather and the program went off splendidly. And much of the success is due to the work of J. Lee Calahan and his staff. I consider Lee one of my best boys," the major continued.

The chief judges of the camporee were William Wessel, assistant national camp director of New York City; Tom Cairns of the Philadelphia council, Major R. F. Seymour, executive of region three, and his assistant, Major D. V. Van Der Boe. The chief judges were assisted by men from each participating council.

How body odor almost ruined my career

"I WAS selling on the road when the good news came. An inside job—opportunity—direct contact every day with the big boss.

"Everything went fine on my first day—until the chief called me into his office. He smiled a cordial welcome and asked for some figures. But when I leaned over his desk to show them to him he suddenly drew back. Without saying another word, he briefly dismissed me.

"Several days went by. Nothing new from the chief. It was rumored I was going on the road again. I couldn't understand.

I learned the truth

"Miserably worried I told my sister the whole story. And then came the shock that was to save me from business disaster.

"'Ed, I know what the whole trouble is. I noticed it at the dance the other night. It may hurt you—but I am going to tell you to your face what I am sure others are saying behind your back.'

"And then she told me the real truth . . . body odor!"

No one is safe from body odor

Body odor is treacherous—it hurts us without our knowing it. Sets us back socially and in business in a humiliating way. And we cannot tell when we offend—because our own sense of smell becomes deadened to a familiar odor.

It's natural to perspire. It's healthful. Even in cool weather we perspire about a quart of odor-causing waste a day, doctors say. In addition, extreme heat, emotion or nervousness may cause excessive perspiration. Thus any one of us may be guilty unless we take care.

Purifying the pores

For all-day freshness—for bath-to-bath safety and confidence—use Lifebuoy Health Soap. You'll revel in its gloriously abundant lather. This pleasant antiseptic lather deeply deodorizes the pores. It prevents body odor not by neutralizing the odor—not by substituting another for it—but by purifying the pores.

Healthier complexions, too

This same bland, antiseptic Lifebuoy lather also purifies face pores—keeping complexions smooth, clear and glowingly fresh. Guards health, too—by removing germs.

You'll learn to love Lifebuoy's pleasant clean scent, which tells you it purifies, and which vanishes as you rinse. Use Lifebuoy a week and you'll use it for life. Get some today.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

BIG BIRD'S INVITATION

"At this point in his story, Oliver Ostrich began to chuckle. 'You know, little birds, the Two-Legs are really stupid about some things. They call every bird that looks like an ostrich, an ostrich! We have some cousins, for instance, over in Africa who have the real right to that name. But those of us who live in South America are really Rheas. But, then what does a name matter after all? It is what we do that counts, and I'll bet you never saw anything run so fast as I can.'

"'Can you run faster than we can fly?' asked wife eagerly.

"Ostrich was quite polite.

"'Well, of course I don't know how fast you can fly,' replied he. 'But I can beat a good many of the birds in these parts. Why, I cover twelve feet in one step. You can't do better than that in one wing's length, can you?

"'I should say not,' exclaimed I. Wife was too surprised to reply. I didn't believe the fellow, but I didn't dare tell him so. 'How many miles can you run in an hour?'

"'Oh, about thirty, I guess,' said Oliver Ostrich, carelessly. Then I heard a queer sound and I knew what it was but I hoped Oliver Ostrich wouldn't find out. Wife was trying to keep from laughing at him. She did not believe him, either. Ostrich must have guessed it.

"'Perhaps you don't think that I am telling the truth, little birds,' said he. 'To prove that I am, jump on my pack and I will show you how fast I can travel. My home is fifteen miles away and I'll have you there before you know it'."

Bobolink stopped talking, and slowly flapped his wings. His wife snapped at a passing gnat but didn't catch it. On the insect sailed, right past her bill. Sonny-Bunny grew impatient.

"Do go on with the story, Bob," cried that small rabbit, "why are you stopping short right in the middle?"

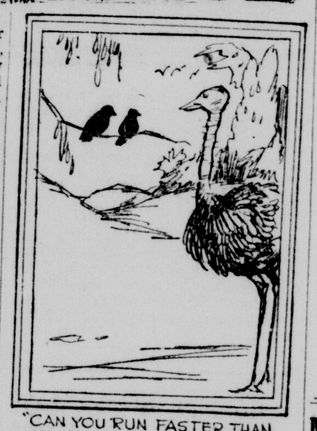
"Perhaps Mr. Robert O'Lincoln is tired," sugested gentle Mother Gray Rabbit. But no more than Sonny-Bunny, did Peter intend to let the tale end at this tpoint. In fact, the boy hoped it would continue for a long time it was so interesting.

"And did you go riding on Oliver Ostrich's back" demanded Peter.

The Bobolinks nodded.

"Of course we did," cried Mr. Bobolink. "I just stopped to think what a fine time we had! You see it was a wonderful chance for us. We birds never get anywhere without using our wings. In all our lives no one had ever offered to carry us anywhere before. This is what made it so exciting!"

Next—"Bobolinks Go for a Sail."



"CAN YOU RUN FASTER THAN WE CAN FLY?" ASKED WIFIE EAGERLY

F., in the monoplane Friendship, Miss Mabel Boll, her pilot, Captain Oliver Le Boutillier and her navigator, Captain Arthur Argles, expected to follow across the Atlantic in the transatlantic monoplane Columbia today if weather permitted.

Informed of the Friendship's hop-off, Captain Le Boutillier remarked: "My ambition is to be the oldest living aviator. I am not going to take any chances. The weather is too bad."

His companions echoed his sentiments. Miss Boll was rather put out because she was beaten to the gun by Miss Earhart, but made no comment.

The Friendship took off from Trepassey Harbor at 12:51 p. m. Atlantic Time (10:51 a. m. New York Daylight Time) yesterday after five unsuccessful attempts.

There were more than 700 gallons of fuel aboard when the plane finally took-off. There were 750 gallons aboard before the unsuccessful attempts but after each one various amounts were dumped overboard to lighten the plane.

Boys Steal Wire; Cut Off Radio

(International News Service)

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., June 18.—Explanation of the "break" which Thursday afternoon cut out all radio reception of the Republican National convention east of Cincinnati came today when three boys, all fourteen years old, were placed under arrest charged with the cutting of 42 miles of wire on the American Telephone & Telegraph trunk line at Mutton Hollow mine, near here. One of the boys admitted the trio had cut the lines and sold the wire for junk, according to police.

Radio service from the convention east of Cincinnati was disrupted for an hour, according to A. T. & T. officials who stated two toll lines and the main St. Louis trunk were the circuits affected.

(International News Service)

ROME, June 18.—Lieut. Lutzow Holm and Hjalmar Riiser-Larsen, Norwegian aviators, have returned to their bases after flights over the ice floes of the north coast of Spitzbergen without sighting any members of the Nobile expedition according to word from King's Bay this afternoon.

Gen. Nobile sent a radiogram saying he and his companions plainly saw two airplanes flying near their encampment but could not attract the attention of the airman. The position of the Nobile group is now six miles east of its previously reported position. Atmospheric conditions and visibility were reported good.

Nobile gave the position as 89.33 north and 27.12 east.

Riiser-Larsen radioed a request for a sledge party that has been encamped at Sires Bay Island. It was understood that Riiser-Larsen and Holm were planning to make another flight immediately.

Mabel Boll Is Disheartened By Amelia's Flight

"Diamond Queen" Had Keen Desire To Be First Woman To Cross Atlantic

(International News Service)

HARBOR GRACE, N. F., June 18.—Disheartened because her flying rival, Miss Amelia Earhart, was first to make a non-stop flight over the Atlantic, Miss Mabel Boll of the plane Columbia, intimated today that her own flight may be cancelled. It is reported that the Columbia will fly back to the United States.

Pilot Oliver C. Le Boutillier said he preferred to attempt a flight to Europe, but that the future plans were uncertain.

"Our flight was a failure from the first, due to misleading weather reports," said the pilot. "I believe the Friendship's crew depended largely upon meterological reports from American ice patrol ships."

STATE COLLEGE MAN SPEAKER AT ROTARY CLUB

H. G. Niesly Discusses Agriculture At Meeting Today At The Castleton

Speaking on "Agriculture in our National Life", H. G. Niesly of State College discussed the interdependence of the farm with every other phase of life, at noon today before the Rotary club in The Castleton.

Figures showing the income of the farmer now as compared with various periods previously were quoted by Mr. Niesly and because of the low average income Mr. Niesly declared that certain changes were inevitable.

"Agriculture will change only insofar as economic conditions will make it possible" said Mr. Niesly. "To fix farm prices arbitrarily one would have to fix supply and fix demand, for as demand increases while the amount of any farm product remains the same, the price is sure to rise and if supply increases with no change in the demand, the price is sure to fall."

"To satisfy rural people, farm prices must be in line with or as near as possible to, the general price level of all commodities. Methods of farming are constantly increasing, according to the speaker, and will continue to be made more efficient."

The address was an enlightening one, given as it was to a group of business men who are in a position to appreciate the necessity of stabilizing the farm industry of this country.

Al Smith Not Nominee Yet, Declares Reed

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

KANSAS CITY, June 18.—Most Democrats, particularly those from the north and west, may believe that Al Smith's nomination at Houston next week is cinched, but Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, is not one of them. To him, the Democratic presidential nomination still rests in the laps of the Gods.

The Missourian said as much today—and with emphasis.

"Nobody has been nominated yet," he said somewhat grimly. "I'm going to Houston, and I think I am going to win. No one can tell what the Houston convention will do."

Autoist Given Bill For Damaging Train

CHICAGO, June 18—Tony Straber's warning to automobile owners is this: When driving your car into a railroad train be careful not to damage the locomotive.

Tony's car and a Grand Trunk train were involved in an argument last November. The automobile wound up in a ditch in a status described by wreck writers as "twisted wreckage". Tony, unhurt, started to tell the engineer a few things, but the engineer got the conversational jump on him.

"Look where you're going," the engineer said, 'and quit bumping into my engine. I'm going to tell the manager."

Apparently he did. Yesterday Tony got a letter from the Grand Trunk railroad, confining itself to the following succinct sentence:

"Enclosed please find bill for $29.18 for damage to our locomotive, No. 6038."

The revised American prayerbook is to be submitted to the 49th triennial convention of the church in Washington in October. The revision must be voted on favorably by two conventions before it is finally adopted.

Ellwood Stultz Praises Brother In Ocean Flight

Brother Of Friendship Pilot Was Confident Of Success In Flight Attempt

MOTHER LISTENS OVER RADIO SET

(International News Service)

HUNTINGDON, Pa., June 18.—Highly elated over the success of his brother Wilmer, who landed at Burry Inlet, South Wales, in the trans-Atlantic plane Friendship, Ellwood Stultz of this city today exclaimed, "mighty glad to hear that," when informed that Wilmer had completed the hop from Trepassey Bay, N. F., in company with Miss Amelia Earhart and Louis Gordon.

"I knew that Wilmer would get across if nothing serious happened to the Friendship," Ellwood Stultz said, pride ringing in his voice. "The Atlantic ocean and the airplane were all that Wilmer would talk about in conversing with me. He thought the whole family ought to be aviators."

Ellwood said that he had talked with his mother, who lives at Williamsburg, Pa., near here, at 7:15 a. m. today.

"She told me that Wilmer had just passed over Ireland," said Ellwood. "She had been up all night listening in on the radio and our conversation was brief. She was afraid she would miss some information coming over the radio if she talked with me."

Referring to the start of the flight, Ellwood said: "They had been out over the water several hours yesterday before I knew it. I was not in the least worried, for if Wilmer was to survive the perilous stunts he 'pulled' over Huntingdon and Blair counties in his plane I felt that the Atlantic ocean was going to be an easy mark for him."

Mourn Death Of Edwin T. Meredith

Former Cabinet Colleagues Regret Passing Away Of Former Member Of Body

(International News Service)

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 18. — Former cabinet colleagues and men high in his party's councils joined with the "home folk" today in mourning the death of Edwin T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture under President Woodrow Wilson.

Mr. Meredith, until recently considered a Democratic presidential possibility, died at 6 o'clock last night at his home here. He was 51.

In private life, he was the publisher of a group of nationally read farm papers with circulations running into the millions.

His death following a three-month illness, was due to high blood pressure and heart complications.

Soon after the first of the year his personal physician, Dr. R. C. Page, advised Mr. Meredith to take an extended rest from his duties as president of the Meredith Publishing company, a business built up from what thirty years ago was little more than a job printing shop turning out a small paper for Iowa farmers.

In April, the former secretary went to Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore. He was brought home May 14. Since then he had been bedfast. Firends were not permitted to enter his room. Two weeks ago his condition became critical.

Wife Of Pilot Of Friendship Plane Is Overjoyed Today

Mrs. Wilmer Stultz, Listened Intently To News Of Flight Over Atlantic

(International News Service)

MINEOLA, L. I., June 13.—Mrs. Mildred Stultz, wife of Wilmer Stultz, pilot of the monoplane "Friendship", was overjoyed today when informed that her husband, Miss Amelia Earhart, the first woman to fly across the Atlantic ocean, and Lou Gordon had landed in Wales. She heard the news at her home here.

"I'm so happy I just don't know what to say," she exclaimed. "I'm running around like a wild woman. I haven't slept for many nights on account of this flight, but now I'm so happy I could stay awake a month longer."

Asked whether she had received any details to supplement the news of the landing, she replied: "They've landed safely; I don't care much about the rest." She declared that the radio messages from the "Friendship" during the crossing had been cheering to her.

Sees Buck Deer In Union Township

Jake Conti Notes Large Deer Coming Out Of Orchard On Sunday

Sunday morning, Jake Conti, well known fireworks manufacturer and resident of Union township, looked out from his home and saw a ten prong buck deer coming out of his orchard and onto the public road. It went a few hundred feet along the road and then stopped, looking about as if bewildered and not knowing where it wanted to go.

Conti went out and attempted to coax it back, fearing that on account of the slightly foggy condition, that it might get in the way of some machines and be injured or killed. It would stop but would not come back.

Finally it went into the middle of a field on the old Marquis place then out along the street car tracks and disappeared. This is rather unusual at this time of year to see a deer in that locality, especially a buck with such handsome antlers.

Ambridge Girl Goes On Trial On Murder Charge

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—Prospective jurors were empaneled in Allegheny county criminal court here today for the murder trial of a pretty 17-year-old blonde, Olga Pawlishak, and her sweetheart, Mike Papowich, jointly charged with the death of Nick Anderson of Ambridge, who was found fatally shot in the Pawlishak home at Fair Oaks, near Ambridge, last January 8.

The jury for the double trial was expected to be selected late this afternoon.

A confession which county detectives said the girl made was believed by the district attorney's office to be an attempt by her to shield Papowich. The alleged confession states the girl shot Anderson, a former boarder in the Pawlishak home, because he was trying to induce her to elope with him. The district attorney's office believed Papowich did the shooting, because he was jealous of Anderson's attentions to the girl.

City Of Salem Held Liable In Typhoid Epidemic

(International News Service)

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., June 18.—The city of Salem is liable for the 1920 typhoid fever epidemic, according to a ruling of the appellate court of Eastern Ohio in ordering a new trial of a suit brought by F. G. Harding against the city.

Intentional clogging of a sewer by city officials to compel residents to connect with a new sewer, Harding contended, caused sewage to seep into the city water main thereby causing the epidemic.

Two of Harding's daughters were among the epidemic victims. He was non suited in Columbiana county recently when the court ruled that the city was not liable for a governmental act.

Young People In Conference

Over 200 Gather At Highland U. P. Church For Conference Sessions

MANY FEATURES MARK PROGRAM

One of the most inspirational conferences ever held by the Young People's Sunday School Council of New Castle, was carried out Sunday afternoon and evening in the Highland United Presbyterian church, corner of Park and Highland avenues, with a record attendance of delegates and visitors.

Although the day was rather warm it was not warm enough to dampen the spirits of the delegates numbering over 200.

The registration period in charge of Chester Shaffer, Russell McNickle, Clarence Ruthrauff, Agnes Patton, Irene Dibley and Hazel McCurdy, was opened at 2 p. m. and the main session about 15 minutes later. After the opening praise service conducted by Frank Brenneman and Frances Turner the delegates divided into prayer groups with Miss Mildred Cowmeadow as leader. Following this came an orchestra selection by the council musicians with A. W. Bauman, Jr., directing.

At 2:45 p. m. the address of greetings was given by O. A. Rodgers, chairman of the Sunday school cabinet of the conference church.

Following Mr. Rodgers greetings the girls and boys went into separate sessions with Mrs. David Daye Sleppy of the Mahoning M. E. church speaking to the girls and John Leonard boys work secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. talking to the boys in heart-to-heart sessions. Other talks were given in these respective meetings by several delegates.

At 3:45 p. m. the delegates reassembled for a 'get acquainted" period. Cathryn McGrath and George Hogue of the Highland church were in charge of this.

The customary roll call was given at 4 o'clock with girls' secretary, Mary Sharpe and the boys secretary, Bruce Ewing in charge.

After the conclusion of another orchestra selection. Miss Charlotte Rodgers and Miss Elizabeth Houston of the Highland church, sang a duet. Mrs. Calles William Marshall, superintendent of the Union Baptist Sunday school, gave an excellent talk on "Jesus Christ, Exalter of Womanhood" at 4:25 p. m. Austin Cowmeadow followed her with a talk on "The Call to American Youth."

At 4:40 p. m. Mrs. D. T. McConahy delivered the main address of the afternoon on the subject "The Jesus Life—So Abundant.' In her address Mrs. McConahy stressed the fact that deeds and not years are the things that make life worthwhile. She termed that kind of life as the abundant life.

After the announcements and the friendship circle conducted by Lyle McGrath of the Highland U. P. church the visitors journeyed to the dining room where the members of the Young Peoples society of the conference church had a luncheon awaiting them.

The model Young People's society demonstration took place from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. with Kenneth Myers in charge. Talks were given by Katheryn Wagner, Paul Arow, Margaret Cowan, Lyle McGrath and June Shira.

The evening session of the conference open to all commenced at 7:45 p. m. with T. J. Davies, superintendent of the Young People's council presiding. After the opening praise service and the quiet hour period in which Margaret Cowmeadow, Edna Blair and Reba Sines took part. Arthur Guy of the Mahoning Presbyterian church, delivered a most interesting talk on "A Living Christ."

In the evening discusison period preceding the evening address Barbara Bratschie talked on "The Heart of the Youth Movement" and Paul Palmer talked on "The Church Challenge of Youth." Both of these discussions were enjoyed tremendously.

The chief address of the evening was given at 8:45 p. m. by Rev. C. J. Williamson pastor of the conference church on the subject "The Challenge." His challenge to the delegates was "Are we making the right use of life?" This he divided into three minor questions, "What is Life For?" "How Make Life Worthwhile?" and "Where Make Life Worthwhile." After his address 150 delegates rose for a re-dedication of service to God at Dr. Williamsons request.

At 9:15 p. m. the closing hymn was sung then Dr. Williamson pronounced the benediction bringing the conference to a close.

Old-Time President And Wife

Noted Woman Writer Tells Of Her First Visit To Mrs. William McKinley And How Tenderly The Husband Aided His Helpmate, Who Was An Invalid

(This is the first of a series of stories on presidents and their wives, the series being termed, "In memory's Portrait Gallery," by the writer, Idah McGlone Gibson. Mrs. Gibson personally interviewed the celebrities of whom she writes so entertainingly.)

By IDAH McGLONE GIBSON
Written Especially for Central Press and New Castle News

The managing editor of an Ohio newspaper for which I had been working two days, called me into his office. He was about to do the usual stunt and send a cub on a chase of a forlorn hope.

"I have an important assignment for you," he said. "You are to interview Mrs. William McKinley at Canton, O. You have only about 15 minutes to make your train."

I didn't know that this was seemingly impossible, for the wife of Governor McKinley of Ohio was such an invalid that her husband had not only refused all interviews for her, but had let it be known that no newspaper was to send any representative to her during his presidential campaign, which was just beginning.

With Christian Endeavorers

Naturally, I thought opportunity was knocking at my door with both fists. The next morning I was awakened by the sound of a brass band and, rushing to the window, saw a great crowd of men and women marching past the hotel.

Not stopping for breakfast, I started for the McKinley home, and arrived there before a large delegation of Christian Endeavorers who were holding their national convention in Canton and were about to pay their respects to the Republican nominee for president.

Presently hundreds of people who had been intrigued by the novelty of the porch campaign which was being inaugurated because of the ill health of Mrs. McKinley, began spilling over the McKinley front yard. I squeezed myself into a corner of the piazza, but presently a good-natured looking, rather thick set man, with a quizzical eye, spied me upon the porch.

"I want to see Mrs. McKinley," I answered to his question.

"Mrs. McKinley sees no one," he said, peremptorily.

Stays Right There

I did not go away, although his manner indicated that the porch was wanted for the important people among the Endeavorers who were at that moment tramping over each other in their efforts to shake Governor McKinley's hand. Soon I decided that Mr. McKinley had come out the door, but my five feet two and one-half made it impossible for me to see him in the crowd.

The noise of the band told me it was escorting the people away, and I was almost alone on the porch. Again the good-natured young man came out. "Are you still here?"

It seemed to me my presence answered the question, and I did not answer. Elmer Dover, secretary of the national committee, I learned afterwards, looked at me speculatively, if silently, and disappeared through the wide door leading both to the offices and the living quarters of the presidential aspirant.

In a few minutes a short, rather red-faced man came to the door and subjected me to a long stare. He, too, disappeared inside, to be replaced by a very handsome man, who looked me over carefully. Then back came Mr. Dover, who, without any explanation, said abruptly: "You can see Mrs. McKinley for ten minutes, if you will wait."

An Old-Fashioned Parlor

At the end of about a half hour I was ushered into an old-fashioned parlor, where I only had time to observe the early American and Colonial furniture, including a number of children's toys, dolls and other playthings in one corner, which seemed to be set aside in memory of Mrs. McKinley's dead children.

When Mrs. McKinley was ushered in by her husband and introduced to me with much ceremony, Mrs. McKinley at that time wore short hair, which I remember at that time looked very unconventional, if becoming. She had very little to say, but declared that she would like the life at the White House very much. She did not seem to have the slightest doubt that her husband would not be the next president. I stayed there about fifteen minutes, and during that time Mrs. McKinley chatted constantly in rather a vague manner, on almost everything that would interest women.

Solicitude for Wife

The most impressive thing that occurred during this visit was that four times Major McKinley came across the hall from his offices and looked in at the door to see if everything was well with his wife. He was the first presidential nominee that I had ever seen, and I remember that I had the feeling that if he was elected, one might say, as far as he was concerned, here was a man who represented the typical American husband whose first consideration was his wife, and after that his country.

The love between President and Mrs. McKinley was so potent to a young, romantic girl reporter, that this side of the martyred president has stayed with her always.

Although President McKinley is never cited as one of the great incumbents of the office, surely a loyal friend, a devoted husband and a patriotic American gentleman are not the least qualifications of a good president.

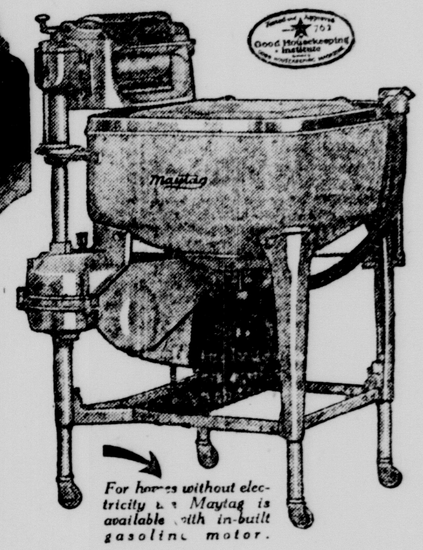
Supreme



EVERY day proves again that the Maytag is supreme, as one out of every three buyers chooses a Maytag. Maytag leadership is also indicated in the definite mark that it has left on present-day washer design. Mere outward appearance, however, should not influence you. The outstanding qualities which gave the Maytag world leadership are still incomparable Maytag features.

Think of the difference between the ordinary washday and the Maytag wash hour—hours saved, effort saved. Yet in addition the Maytag actually saves clothes. The seamless, cast-aluminum, heat-retaining tub and the gyrafoam action wash the grimiest clothes clean without hand-rubbing.

The Soft-Roller Water Remover gently but thoroughly removes the soap and water evenly from all parts of the clothes without stretching or pulling them, sparing the buttons and leaving no hard-to-iron wrinkles in the clothes.

Only by washing with a Maytag can you appreciate all its advantages.

Gardner Threatens Gambling Clean-Up Of Pittsburgh Dens

Raid On Saloon Containing Slot-Machine Leads To Rigid Investigation

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—A mother's story of a husband who spent all his wages in slot machines and booze and the story of an alleged highly organized gambling ring told by a North Side saloon-keeper have tipped the lid back on a city-wide gambling investigation here today.

The saloon-keeper, Edward Meyer, charged that the slot machines were placed in the saloon by Alfred W. Forney, already indicted by the federal grand jury in connection with Pittsburgh's alleged rum ring conspiracy.

Meyer's place was raided by police on the complaint of a mother whose baby was without food because her husband gambled his earnings away.

Upon hearing the story which was told before Magistrate A. D. Brandon in morals court, District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner took steps for an immediate investigation which is believed may equal in scope the recent rum conspiracy probe in which 167 persons were indicted.

Splendid Interest In Tent Meetings

Salvation Army To Continue Series Of Special Meetings On Euclid Avenue

Added interest is being manifested in the special series of services being conducted by the Salvation Army in the tent at Euclid and Wilmington avenues. The week-end services were the best for interest and attendance that they have had since the series commenced. Two large open-air services were conducted on Saturday night with large crowds in attendance. On Sunday morning the band under the direction of Adjutant F. J. Barker, brought about much inspiration and blessing. The sermon was delivered by Adjutant Barker.

A service of song and praise was conducted in the afternoon. During this service there were special musical selections rendered. The sermon was delivered by Captain A. Watson from Braddock, Pa., who was assisting in the meetings.

The Sunday evening service proved to be the best of the entire series. The tent was filled for this meeting. The band rendered special numbers; the congregation united in song and praise; Adjutant F. J. Barker brought a very forceful message that resulted in blessing to all that were present.

Following this service the Greensburg band left for home again feeling that they had been able to render much service to the local meetings.

The services will continue each night this week with the following program being carried out:

Monday, 7:30 p. m.—Adjutant and Mrs. B. Flinn and Meadville band.

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Adjutant J. Herd and Beaver Falls band.

Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.—Comdt. and Mrs. Hinshaw and Greenville band.

Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Adjutant Crouch of Pittsburgh.

Friday, 7:30 p. m.—Rev. J. L. Petrie of Grace M. E. church.

All of the above services will be conducted at the tent on the corner of Euclid and Wilmington avenues. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to each service.

Last Wednesday Hottest Day

Temperature Rose To 89 For This Highest Record This Season

Last Wednesday, June 13, was the hottest day we have had this season when the mercury rose to 89 degrees according to the local station of the United States Weather Bureau.

The highest temperature recorded before this season was on May 4 and May 10 when a temperature of 88 was given out by the U. S. Weather Bureau. But for the most part the spring has been quite cool, there being several weeks when the temperature did not go much above 60 degrees.

The total rain fall for the week June 10-16 was .51 inches which was quite light compared with the week before. Yet it was quite well distributed over the week, there being traces of rain each day although little fell on Monday, Tuesday or Friday. There was only one clear day reported for the week with two cloudy and four partly cloudy.

The average temperature for the week was 62.8. The average maximum was 76 and the average minimum was 49.6. The lowest temperature for the week was on Monday and Saturday mornings with a temperature of 40.

Police Station Cat Killed By Auto

Rescue Of Cat From Strangler Fails To Prolong Life Of Police Station Tabby

Tabby, the ratter, is no more. And the police department is really in mourning for her.

And the strange part of it all is that her death came in a most commonplace manner Saturday evening about eight o'clock, after she had been rescued three consecutive times from the madman with a mania for strangling cats.

The police are convinced that Tabby must have used up the rest of her nine lives before she appeared at the police station, as a result of her death under the wheel of a passing automobile on East street, just a few feet from her home, the city jail.

Officer Robert Dukes was the officer, who discovered her untimely death and it is really putting it mildly to say that he was shocked, because Bob has a very tender spot for all animals.

Tabby, placed in a basket, was given a decent burial by Officer Dukes and now the department is on the lookout for a suitable successor to Tabby.

Serious Diseases Absent In Mercer, Venango Counties

Medical Director Reports No Disease Of Serious Character In Counties

MERCER, Pa., June 18.—Not a disease of serious character in Mercer or Venango counties at present is the report today of Dr. S. J. Dickey, the Medical Director of the two counties who has just completed a survey of them.

The only diseases reported are those prevalent to children. Sickness of any serious character among the adults cannot be found.

The doctor reports a number of cases of summer grippe lasting about a week and quite annoying for the time.

Erecting States Route Markers

Standards For State Highway Route Numerals Are Being Placed

Standards of angle iron are being erected by the side of state highways at intersections on which route numerals will be placed to mark the different state routes in Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania highways department decided some months ago to erect route markers similar to those used in Ohio and other states instead of painting the route numerals on telephone posts and other objects near the highway. It is likely that the numerals will be placed soon on the standards that were erected last week.

The standards are of angle iron and have holes through one side by which the numerals will be bolted to the posts. They are placed two at each road intersection, being a few feet from the pavement in the rural districts and on the curb in cities and towns.

They are placed about 50 feet beyond the intersection and to the right of the highway as one passes the intersection. This will be a great aid to motorists as either day or night the numerals are very plainly seen and as they pass a cross road they can at a glance tell whether they are still on the right route or whether the route has turned off at that intersection. Just before coming to a turn of the route or the intersection of another state route, a sign will make that information known, designating a right turn by R and a left turn by L.

It is not known in general just what size, shape and color the numerals will take but it is understood that they will be about the size of those used in Ohio and on a background of a keystone and painted in a color that will be quite easily read by day or night.

"Science will eliminate the terrors of childbirth." It must hurry, however, or there won't be any to eliminate.

Farmers Get Large Damages For Roads

Mercer County Farmers Will Get $100,000 Damages For New Road Routes

MERCER, Pa., June 18.—It is expected that the damage to farms of this county in road building for 1928 will cost $100,000 it is reported today.

New routes are being coursed by the state Highway Department in the laying out of the improvement now under way on the Mercer-Sharon road and also on the Clarks Mills-Sandy Lake route which is to be let soon.

This damage taken with the new bridges that will have to be built because of these routes the Perry Highway in the county will approximate a cost of $150,000 expense to the county.

Joint Memorial Services Sunday

Odd Fellows And Rebekahs Have Memorial On Sunday Evening

Joint memorial service of New Castle lodge No. 195 I. O. O. F. and Rachel Rebekah lodge held Sunday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall on North Mill street, was most impressive and largely attended, there being more than 300 people in attendance.

Rev. W. J. Williams, member of the Oil City I. O. O. F. lodge, was the speaker of the evening and delivered a memorial address that was one of the finest ever heard at such a service here.

The memory of two deceased members of New Castle lodge and three deceased members of the Rachel Rebekah lodge was honored in this address and service. These members died during the past year.

Another most impressive feature of the evening was memorial service and floor work of the Rachel Rebekah lodge in which Mrs. Lucy Pettitt was master of ceremonies and in which the officers of the lodge participated.

The evening program opened with the singing of America by the audience. This was followed by the invocation by Rev. W. J. Williams. William Robison then followed with the opening remarks, which were in keeping with the occasion.

The next number of the program was a vocal duet by Mrs. Blanche Matthews and Mrs. Nellie Tribby, who rendered "Outside the Eastern Gate" with Mrs. Bess Thomas as accompanist in a very effective manner. Miss Wanda White then rendered Thanatopsis in an interesting manner.

The roll call followed and then William Whieldon sang "The Vacant Chair" in a beautiful effective manner. Mrs. Minnie Gehrken acted as his accompanist and was also accompanist of the evening. Rev. Williams then spoke and the memorial service of the Rebekahs followed. The service was brought to a close with benediction by Rev. Williams.

Ushers of the service were Elder McCormick, Eugene Ray and William Pettitt. The committee in charge of the services consisted of William Robison, F. L. Norris, C. H. Buell, Mrs. Minnie Gehrken, Mrs. Jane Smith and Mrs. Sarah McCormick.

SUFFERED NUMBER OF YEARS; FINDS AMAZING RELIEF

"For Liver, Kidneys And Bowels, Ten Herbs Tas No Equal," Lady Believes.

"I think my recovery, which I attribute to Ten Herbs, shows that your medicine has even more merit than what many claim for it," was the statement of Mrs. John T. O'Malley, 5130 Second Avenue, Hazelwood, Pa.,

MRS. JOHN T. O'MALLEY

(near Pittsburgh), to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this new herbal medicine.

"For the past four or five years, I suffered with indigestion, and finally became very weak and run-down," Mrs. O'Malley continued. "It seemed as though my food simply would not digest. Even the lightest food would cause gas pains, which kept me awake night after night, and I would be up and down. My bowels were so constipated that I had to take physics continually.

"My liver was sluggish, causing dizzy spells. In going down stairs I would get so light-headed that I would have to grasp the banisters to keep from falling. My kidneys seemed to be weak, causing me to arise several times during the night, and in the morning I would awake with severe pains across my back. I tried everything I heard of, but kept getting worse, until I began to be in agony.

"Then, after all this suffering, Ten Herbs gave me just the relief I wanted. I began to improve with the very first bottle, and continued to get better. I am now rid of the gas, bloating and pains of indigestion. I can eat anything without having distress. I recently ate pork chops, of which I am very fond, for the first time in months. For liver, kidneys and bowels, I believe Ten Herbs has no equal. Even friends remark how much better I look. I would say to anyone who is suffering as I was—get Ten Herbs today, and you may know relief tomorrow, as this medicine has all the merit that is claimed for it."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine. He will be glad to tell you how to take it to get the best results. Free sample given.

City Mission Has Open Air Services

Four Services Are Conducted In South Side Section On Saturday Night

Four fine open air Gospel services were held Saturday evening in the southern part of the city by the City Rescue Mission, which were attended by hundreds of people who were reached by the Gospel message. The various music that was furnished by the Mission Una-Fon Chimes was greatly appreciated by the audiences which gathered.

The City Mission is going to carry out its usual program of open air Gospel services throughout the summer, and services will be held in various places in the city and in surrounding towns.

E. J. Berquist carries the Una-Fon Chimes this year on his own car which makes an unique outfit for open air work. However, besides the open air services the services will be held every evening in the Mission beginning at 8 o'clock and closing at 9 o'clock, daylight savings time. This being the time of the year when inside gatherings are not as great as they are in the fall and winter, and it is also a wonderful time of the year to hold open air services.

Many Gospels and religious tracts are distributed free at these services, and the Mission keeps "everlasting at it" reaching people with the Gospel.

Hoover Is Not So Much At Home On Platform

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special News Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18. — A big man who smiles with an easy, good-natured grin is sitting out in Washington these days and wondering with a vague uneasiness how he is going to convince the country he should be elected President next fall. For Herbert Hoover, while a dynamic whirpool of executive and engineering ability in his office in the commerce department or in hip boots sloshing mud and directing the accomplishment of some difficult engineering feat, is ill at ease on the speaking platform.

As a campaigner, Mr. Hoover is going to disappoint a great many people of the country—especially men who see the commerce secretary first as a public speaker. On the speaking platform he grins like an embarrassed high school boy and fidgets and plays with his fingers. Gone is the swift, sure air of decision that impresses visitors who see him in his office in Washington. Gone is the alert watchfulness and self assurance that made him stand out as a figure of engineering fame on the levees of the Mississippi last fall.

Men will be disappointed when they first see and hear Mr. Hoover on the platform. For they do not find that air of a forceful, dominating character they like to attribute to the President of the United States.

But the women voters of the nation will like the Secretary, like him because of that instinct to mother and comfort an awkward, embarrassed boy. For Herbert Hoover, with his rather plump, good-natured face, his mild eyes, his high stiff collar with rounded points and his self-conscious smile will win the hearts of the women to whom he speaks from meeting hall platforms.

Just what speaking Mr. Hoover will do this summer is as yet undecided. The Secretary has hinted at talking moving pictures and radio speeches. For the public platform does not appeal to him. At home he is a delightful host. One prominent member of the Senate who is much at home in the social circles of Washington says he would rather attend one of Herbert Hoover's informal dinners than breakfast with the President. For Mr. Hoover, he asserts, is an interesting and entertaining conversationalist.

But wide and varied as his experiences have been, Mr. Hoover has never yet become adept with oratory.

A striking contrast to this quiet westerner is Governor Al Smith of New York, Democratic hope. At home alike on the Bowery or in Wall street, the Governor never loses his equanimity. Primarily, Mr. Smith is both clever and original, and unlike Secretary Hoover, his talent is not smothered by a cloak of self-consciousness on the speaking platform but is fanned to a brighter flame.

Like Mayor Jimmy Walker of New York City, Governor Smith has the ability to meet people and to win them. With equal grace of gesture he wears evening clothes and discusses the latest work of art or swings a golf stick and enthuses over a long drive.

Pitted against one another on the speaking platform, it's a self evident fact that the witty Governor of New York would frankly sparkle in comparison with the more subdued scholarly Hoover.

At any rate, it's going to be interesting to watch the reactions of the country to these two men when they begin their campaign activities. With a practical, methodical air of the plodder Secretary Hoover will canvass for constituents, while with the assured grace of one who has played the game and knows how, Governor Smith will trip rather blithely into the fray.

Chicago Chatter

BY IONE QUINBY

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

CHICAGO, Jun 18.—Chicago like every other large city offers inducements for making quick money in a variety of ways. Here are a few of the odd and de luxe professions for feathering one's nest:

The "happy girls"—the cafe entertainers—who get so much an hour for laughing at the jokes and quips of other women's husbands. Hired by cafes and restaurants to smooth away grouches and make middle-aged busines men young again, they take the place of Ponce de Leon's "Fountain of Youth" in the whirlstrom of the big city.

The "mushroom" boys (called that because they seemed to spring up over night from nowhere) who are hired at last moments to fill in at de luxe society functions. No one knows where they come from except the hostess—and a certain professional social secretary—and their names aren't published in the society columns. But they know how to wear evening clothes they have eclat and they're said to come with the highest recommendations of character. Some suspect they are clothes models or chorus boys out of jobs but no one knows for sure.

"Escorts for rent"—mostly young men from 20 to 30 but now and then a distinguished white-haired or iron-gray-headed gentleman—who are provided by certain high-class hotels to escort lonely and wealthy ladies to the theater, the opera, down the "Boul Mich" and even to the circus. These men too come with high recommendations and several to date have nooked up as ecorts for life.

Society women who allow their pictures to be published with various beauty and cosmetic advertisements for the sum of $1,000 or so. Likewice the millionairess who stipulates the sum of $200 for being photographed by the newspapers in her new outfits just brought from Paris.

The "runners" for photograph studios, pretty girls with "it" who get acquainted with men at high class cafes and restaurants where money flows easily, then hypnotize the poor fellow with flattery and tell them fibs about their faces that no one could love but a mother. This done all they have to do is to make a new nonchalant remarks like this "Such a shame a handsome man like you never gets his picture took." "You've got the exact personality for a marvelous picture—your expression'd take wonderfully" or "Such and such studio won't take pictures of any but big, fine looking men," and they've got 'em hoked. Nevt day the sheepish men come around to the studios and blushingly asked for an engagement to have their mugs portrayed. Some of the best studios use this method. Flattery thus dished up brings in at least 50 per cent of the patronage.

Evacuation Sesqui For Valley Forge

Departure Of Washington's Troops From Cantonment 150 Years Recalled

NORRISTOWN, June 18.—The 150th anniversary of General Washington and the American army will be celebrated Tuesday.

The Valley Forge Historical society will hold its tenth annual meeting at 1:30. Ten years ago, Rev. Dr. Herbert Burk established the society with 13 members, and today it has more than 300 adult members and more than 42,000 children. President Coolidge is one of its perpetual patrons.

At 2:30 there will be a celebration by the historical societies of Montgomery county, including the Valley Forge Historical society, Chester County Historical society and other patriotic groups. The speaker will be Rev. Linn Bowman, pastor of Spring Garden M. E. church, Philadelphia.

At 4 o'clock the cornerstone of the National Washington Memorial church will be laid by Rt. Worshipful Grand Master J. Wilson Smith, under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania. This is done at the invitation of the sojourners and the authorities of the Washington Memorial chapel. The orator of the day will be Theodore Lane Bean of the Valley Forge park commission and of the vestry of the Washington Memorial chapel.

At the close of the service Mrs. Thomas H. Dorsey will present a "Washington Elm" grown from the seeds of the original tree under which Washington took command of the American army at Cambridge, Mass. The tree will be accepted by Dr. Burk and will be planted by Mrs. Dorsey. The architect of the church, which is planned to seat 5000, is J. C. Cornelius.

The New Hampshire state flag was presented at the services Sunday afternoon, June 17. The presentation was made by Arthur Emmond Pearson of Massachusetts. The donor is Mrs. Charles Henry Greenleaf.

Several London women had a girl put off a bus because they said her skirt was too short. It certainly makes some women mad for another to attract all of the attention.—Florida Times-Union.

Increase Efforts To Collect Tax

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 18. — Increasing their efforts to collect $50,000 in unpaid taxes owed by residents of Abington Township, Charles R. Bechtel, deputy township treasurer, and E. T. Longstreet, lieutenant of tax collectors, have posted notices announcing that the personal property of delinquent taxpayers would be put up for public sale within 10 days if the unpaid money was not forthcoming.

Dr. Howard Wilson, township treasurer, who has been engaged in a heated controversy with police over the refusal of the police to lodge delinquents in the township jail, proved his contention that it was within the rights of tax collectors by the discovery of an act of the legislature.

The controversy started when Allan Lindsy, Negro, of Willow Grove, was released from the township lockup by Chief of Police Lever, who maintained that the delinquents should be lodged in the Delaware County jail at Norristown.

Tech Students To Go To Army Camps

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—The Army will call at least 43 students of the Carnegie Institute of Technology this summer, according to an announcement made by Major J. G. Taylor, professor of Military Science and Tactics and head of the military department of the institution.

The Carnegie Tech contingent to the summer camps of the United States Reserve Officers Training Corps will consist of two main groups, Major Taylor stated.

One group of 33 students will try Army life at Fort Humphreys, Va., the engineering camp, while the other group of ten students will enter Army life at Fort Monmouth, N. J., the signal corps camp. Both camps opened June 15 and will be in session until July 26.

TWO POPULAR STARS TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

New York, N. Y.—Mary Lawlor, star of "Good News," and Polly Walker, star of "The Merry Malones," may disagree, as prima donnas will, about the merits of their respective musical shows, but they agree on one point.

The well-dressed star, they both say, knows that the one way to keep stockings and frocks and underthings like new is with Lux.

"Lux is always in my dressing room," Polly Walker adds. "And I insist upon my maid's using only Lux for my show clothes and my own personal things, because I can't bear to lose a favorite gown or negligée through careless washing."

A recent survey showed that the producers of every musical show in New York specify Lux for the stockings and costumes of choruses, because they say washing with Lux keeps lovely filmy things new-looking twice as long as other methods.

Lever Brothers Co., largest soap makers in the world and makers of Lux, take great pride in the savings in clothes and money made possible through the use of Lux.

The great movie studios also use Lux to get double wear from costumes. And department stores estimate that Lux has saved American women at least a billion dollars through double wear from fabrics.

Lawrence County Holds High Rank

Over 124,000 Bushels Of Apples Harvested In County During Year

VALUE OF CROP IS UPWARDS OF $200,000

With Pennsylvania leading the United States in the percentage of farms having apple trees, Lawrence county ranks high among the 67 counties of the state in apple production, having grown 124,230 bushels, valued at $173,992 during the year of 1927, it is announced by the state department of agriculture.

Last year Pennsylvania was fourth in the United States total apple production. Approximately 90 per cent of Pennsylvania farms produce apples.

This standing has been maintained despite a loss of about 5,000,000 apple trees during the past 25 years, the chief reason being better care of orchards. Only Washington, New York and California produced more apples in 1927 than Pennsylvania.

The total state apple crop in 1927 is estimated at 6,300,000 bushels, valued at $8,820,000. Pennsylvania apples are generally considered to have a better flavor than those that are grown in the south and the west, the report states. Pennsylvania farmers average 20 cents a bushel more than the Washington orchardists.

Mercer county ranks 52nd in the amount of apples produced, having grown 33,390 bushels with a value of $50,085. Crawford county produced 37,460 bushels, valued at $173,922. Butler county, 80,740 bushels, valued at $177,073, and Venango county, 9,160 bushels, valued at $17,404.

Six counties produced over 2,000,000 bushels of apples and 19 more produced over 1,000,000 bushels.

Apples from the western area of the state are more valuable, than the fruit of the eastern section. The state average is $1.40 a bushel, which is Lawrence county's average.

Takes Whisky And Then Dies

GREENVILLE, Pa., June 18.—Del Taylor of Hodgetown, a suburb, is being held in the borough jail on an open charge, pending an inquest by County Coroner W. McGrath of Sharon, into the death of James Nickleson, 65, of Greene township, who died a few minutes after Taylor gave him a drink of liquor.

County Detective S. R. Leyshock, last evening, had a physician remove Nickleson's stomach, which was sent to County Chemist Craig Hoyt at Grove City for analysis. According to Leyshock, he has found strong indications that Nickleson died from drinking poison liquor.

First Death Chair Victim In Beaver

BEAVER, June 18.—For the first time in the history of Beaver county a jury composed of 11 men and one woman returned a verdict of guilty in a murder case and fixed the penalty at death in the electric chair. Angelo Lazzarini, Ambridge, must pay this penalty for shooting and killing Pasquale Visingardi, Aliquippa, at Ambridge May 11 last. The testimony was to the effect the two men had quarreled over some automobile tires. Later they drank wine in the Lazzarini home and as Visingardi was leaving Lazzarini went to the porch and shot the man through the heart. Lazzarini pleaded self-defense.

Foot Philosophy

Octogenarian Cobbler, Pegging Away 63 Years, Knows Character Of Clients By Shape Of Their Feet

MICHAEL MITCHELL

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

PORTLAND, Me., June 18.—Feet tell their tale of character just as much as those much advertised bumps on the cranium, declares Michael Mitchell, Portland's 83-year-old custom shoe tailor.

And Michael ought to know. For he's been measuring and fitting feet for his "clientele" for the past 63 years.

For instance, there's the long, slender foot of the artistically inclined, the veteran cobbler relates; there's the stubby, fat hoof of the stubborn man who will insist that this ought to be that and that this, in the face of 63 years of pegging away at brogans; there's the thin, blue-veined foot of the neurotic, who can scarcely sit still long enough to be measured for his tailor mades, and then complains the next day of pressure where the leather doesn't even touch; and there's the heavy No. 12 hoof of the phlegmatic gent who doesn't care a cuss as long as the shoe wears so long that he thinks he's getting more than his money's worth.

Knows His Feet.

"I don't need any chart of a man's noodle all divided into sections and numbered pretty to tell me what kind of a customer I'm going to get," grins the affable Mitchell, as he trundles away on the tread mill of his sewing machine. "And I don't need any little glass ball to gaze in, either, to figure out pretty near what kind of luck I'm going to have collecting bills or what kind of a life my client has led.

"You see, feet don't change much after a man's got his full growth, unless for certain reasons, like dropping a trunk on 'em, or hitting 'em with an axe. And all the rest of his life those feet mirror pretty much his general temperament in their structure, size and so on. It's a hard thing to explain, and I don't know as it could be harted like those fellows who draw out what the bumps mean on the head, but after 63 years of seeing feet, and knowing the persons they belong to, you get to know about what to expect when you see a pair close up."

Has Pegged 63 Years.

And 63 years is long enough to get any general idea or philosophy or science organized. In that 63 years Mitchell has pegged and sewed away for a great many people whose names are written in the history of Maine.

As the years have slipped behind him, he has moved from place to place in the city, each time bettering his location as prosperity came to him. He works nine to 11 hours a day in his shop, tapping and sewing, cutting and paring. He's a one-man outfit, proprietor, employer and employe—a tailor of shoes running his own shop.

And as the long hours slip by, bent over his work, he meditates upon his fellow man, builds up his phuosophy of feet, constructs the person and life of him for whom he is fashioning footwear.

Patrolman Shot By Prisoner May Die

NEW BRIGHTON, June 18. — Attacked by a prisoner whom he was putting in the borough lockup, Patrolman Sam Kennedy, 34, of the borough police department, was shot through the left kidney. He is in the Beaver Valley General hospital in a serious condition.

Kennedy had arrested Eugene McMahon, 23, and Ralph McMahon, 21, cousins, both of Rochester, whom he caught syphoning gasoline from an automobile parked along the street. He took the two youths to the lockup. He placed Ralph in a cell and while unlocking the door of the cell for Eugene McMahon, the latter struck the officer with his fist. McMahon, then, according to the officer, grabbed the officer's revolver from its holster and fired. The bullet penetrated the kidney and came out through the right hip.

Although badly wounded, Kennedy grappled with the man and held on until Patrolman Wilson ran in and overpowered McMahon.

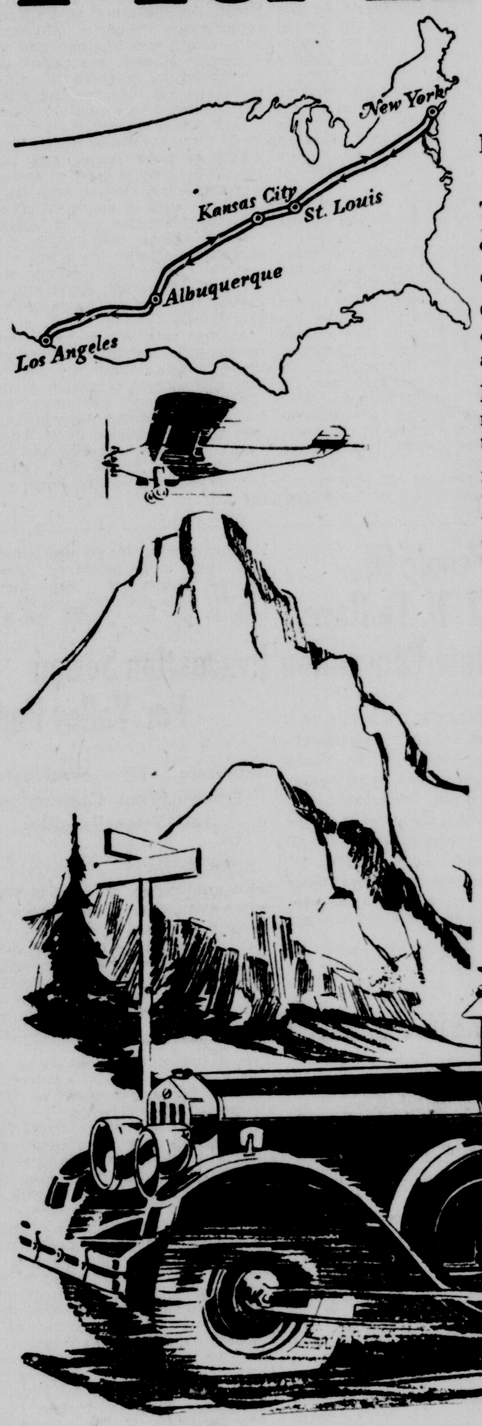
FRANKLIN AIRMAN



Los Angeles to New York to Los Angeles

Total mileage: 6692. Total elapsed time: 157 hrs. 23 min.

(All timing checked by Western Union Officials)

Once again Franklin's advanced construction principles have won a decisive victory!

In sixty-six hundred miles of continuous driving—under all conditions of road and weather—a stock Airman Sedan driven by Cannon Ball Baker, famous road driver, achieved the record which, above all others, carries outstanding prestige and recognized importance.

The Airman's ability to cover the maximum miles per day with the minimum of fatigue to the driver counted heavily for success. Mile after mile, hour after hour, Franklin maintained a higher average rate of speed—registered many extra miles per day—which is the true test of speed. Cannon Ball Baker drove the Airman continuously from Los Angeles to New York and back to Los Angeles with no stop except for fuel. The Airman is the only motor car designed for sustained high speed with comfort.

Scientific light weight provided supreme driving ease. Franklin's ability to hold the road—and the positive action of synchronized 4-wheel hydraulic brakes—established a new conception of high average speed with safety.

Aviation has advanced the air-cooled motor as the standard of engine performance. In all the recent record-breaking flights the air-cooled motor was unanimously chosen for its reliability and powers of endurance.

The Airman's record-breaking, coast-to-coast run makes the air-cooled motor supreme on the highway. Its thorough dependability and efficiency were positive factors for safety—on the stiffest mountain grades the air-cooled motor delivered an abundance of power without a suggestion of overheating.

You are urged to have a demonstration this week—in America's fastest road car.

This remarkable round-trip coast-to-coast record beats the previous record by 10 hrs. and 36 min.

American Education Is Blamed For Revolution By Mayor Of Chicago

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 18.—The Turkish revolt the trouble in China Russia's revolution throughout the world are directly traceable to American education and civilization.

This is the opinion of Chase S. Osborne former governor of Michigan and ex-regent of the University of Michigan. Speaking before several hundred alumni of the University of Michigan at the Blackstone hotel here recently Mr. Osborn did not condemn American education because of these results but merely stated his opinion as a fact.

He continued: "The college graduate acts as an agent who influences the people with whom he comes into contact. His indirect influence is greater than the direct. Thus ideas and teachings spread all over the world."

New Deputies Have Hard Time Finding Paris Apartments

(International News Service)

PARIS, June 18.—Newly-elected legislators arriving from the provinces find it easy to obtain a seat at the Chamber of Deputies but extremely difficult to lease an apartment. The lodging crisis in Paris dates back to the war.

The chamber's secretary has 300 apartments listed but more of them cost more than a deputy's salary for four years. It is suspected they were offered by defeated adversaries who are either returning to the provinces or going into the real estate business.

Monsieur Henri Andraud, deputy from the Puy-de-Dome, says: "If I can not find an apartment I will continue and spend only two days a week in Paris."

"I am sight-seeing while friends try to find an apartment for me," explained Monsieur Jacques Costanent, of Nimes. "If they succeed I will try to reward them by proposing laws to bring down the high rentals."

Small Boy, Matches Cause Fire Loss

City firement were called to the home of John Rudzis, 505 Galbreath avenue, Sunday morning about nine o'clock by an alarm from box 9.

They found the fire on their arrival to be in a closet on the first floor and the contents of a clothes basket.

A five year old son of the household, found some matches while playing and of course had to use them, setting on fire the basket full of clothes. The fire destroyed the basket of clothes and communicated itself to the contents of the closet, which were also destroyed.

It also damaged the building to the extent of $75. The loss in clothing is estimated at $100. The loss is covered by insurance. Fortunately, the little boy escaped injury.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT REPORTED TO POLICE

W. R. Jarvis of 308 Edgewood avenue, reported Sunday that he was going south on Apple Alley and crossing East Washington street, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 300-607 parked in front of Dan's Place, backed out and into his machine, damaging it.

For those lectures through the country for which he rehearses in his senate speeches, Mr. Heflin is reported to get $250 a night. Not so dumb, not so dumb.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Plan Campaign For Congressmen

Expect To Elect 36 Republican Congressmen In State This Year

WASHINGTON, June 18.—With the standard bearers of the Republican party chosen at Kansas City last week, the Republican congressional campaign committee plans an active campaign for the election of a delegation of 36 Republican congressmen from Pennsylvania next November.

Legislative leaders in Washington point out that Pennsylvania industries, workmen and farmers are vitally interested in the protective tariff, which it is contended must not only be retained but revised to meet the invasion of foreign products. They count upon the voters of Pennsylvania to look more to the tariff issue than any other in influencing their votes during the coming campaign and expect the election of Republican congressmen as a matter of self-protection.

Pennsylvania industries have suffered from the increasing tide of foreign imports which are in direct conflict with American-made goods, manufactured under American standards and at the American wage scale. The influx has included common brick, iron and steel, textiles, glass and glassware, cast-iron pipe, plate glass, cement, woolen goods, leather, shingles, potash and many other articles which are prominent in Pennsylvania industry.

The Republican protective tariff, the national leaders contend, protects the wage earner and industry against foreign competition and maintains the American pay roll.

Congressman Crowther of Schenectady, N. Y., in a recent discussion of the tariff said:

"Under present conditions with foreign competition just reaching high tide, a Democratic tariff will send more than 10,000,000 into the streets seeking work and their children seeking bread. At the present scale of wages the discharge of 10,000,000 from the ranks of the gainfully employed will cut our cash pay roll more than $200,000,000 per week. The American pay roll is the one thing that enables us to reduce our public debt, while every other country increases theirs; and the preservation of this pay roll is the only issue of this campaign worth considering."

Nashville, Tenn.—"I cannot say too much in favor of the medicine. I was in a run-down condition. I worked in a laundry but my health got so bad that I had to give up work. I got a bottle of Lydia E. The Diary of a New Yorker

by CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The idea that rich men's sons and their money are soon parted is shown to be as incorrect as a movie star's autobiography. The proverb, "Shirtsleeves to shirtsleeves in three generations" isn't affirmed by a survey made of the present status of great early American fortunes.

The $20,000,000 J. J. Astor left in 1848 is now over $150,000,000. Vincent Astor alone is rated at a hundred millions. Meyer Guggenheim's fortune increased from 50 millions to half a billion between his death, in 1905, and 1928. The 50 millions of Stephen Harkness, and the 10 millions of Charles Pratt, both early Standard Oil partners, have grown to about 400 millions and 300 millions, respectively. A. I. Du Pont left $30,000,000 accumulated in his family's 100 years of powder making. The Du Pont fortune is now estimated at half a billion. The $100,000,000 estate of old Cornelius Vanderbilt has grown so that one member of the family alone, Frederick, has that much.

The only conspicuous American fortune that has decreased is that of the Gould family. It was $85,000,000 when Jay Gould died in 1892. Legal battles of Goulds of four generations have caused it to shrink two-thirds.

Mabel Boll's efforts to veil some details of her early life and weave a romantic fiction about others, were successful until the so-called "Queen of Diamonds" and aspiring aviatrix got into the biggest headlines and picture pages. Then home folks recognized her. They didn't think she had any reason to be ashamed of having been Mibsey Bach, former clothing model in Rochester, N. Y., and they told on her.

Peggy Hopkins Joyce never made any secret of the fact that her father, who died not long ago, was a barber in a small Virginia town.

* * *

The interest that some wealthy New Yorkers used to devote to acquiring rare vintages they now apply to collecting strange varieties or blends of tobacco. One shop, owned by a woman, specializes in manufacturing special and exclusive blends for rich customers. Some of this shop's cigarettes sell for as high as $16 a hundred, and it has cigars priced at $80 a hundred. The cigarettes are monogrammed in gold, with silk tips, and are scented with rare perfumes.

Elaborate boxes containing an infinite variety of smoking tobaccos, all carefully labeled as to suitability for various hours of the day or moods of the smoker, are put up for persons who prefer pipes.

* * *

Incidentally, since cigarette smoking became so effeminate, many women have taken to pipes.

Local ice companies, to meet the competition of electric refrigerators, are introducing all sorts of innovations. Colored cubes in boxes may be had delivered or at stores. One company has opened "cash and carry" stations, with the price cut in half because of the elimination of retail distributing costs.

Dog Sledge Relief Party Is Started On Nobile Hunt

(International News Service)

ROME, June 18.—Unable to make any progress farther northward because of the ice-floes which hem it in on all sides, the steamer Braganza has founded a well-equipped relief party at Cape North to search for General Umberto Nobile and the marooned crew of the dirigible Italia, radio advices received here stated today.

The relief party is commanded by Captain Zora. It consists of two sledges drawn by nine dogs each. The sledges are loaded with medicines and other supplies for Nobile and his men. Two guides with long Arctic experience are leading the party.

Reports that three members of the crew of the Italia were rescued by a searching party from the ice-breaker Hobby were stamped as groundless by Naval Under Secretary Sirani.

College Seal To Be Set This Week

Will Mark Feature In Construction Of New Main College Building

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, June 18.—Construction work on the Old Main Memorial, new Westminster structure here, will be marked this week by the setting of the seal of the college in the stone above the huge arched main doorway of the chapel wing of that building.

The college seal, which is an immense piece of cut stone weighing well over 1,500 pounds, is 18 inches thick and 52 inches wide, which gives to it an interesting symbolical content in that the founding of Westminster College took place in the year 1852.

It is probable that the seal will be placed above the front entrance of the chapel early this week because it is the piece now needed for the completion of that part of the chapel wall. There has as yet been no announcement of any ceremony to be connected with this part of the building program.

Two of the local churches, the Presbyterian and the Methodist, conducted Children's Day services yesterday morning. Pageants were put on by the children of both of the churches.

Saturday morning Robert Houston left here to spend six weeks at the R. O. T. C. training camp at Carlisle, Pa. Mr. Houston is in the medical division of that reserve camp.

Preparatory to taking up her duties as a member of the faculty of Westminster musical conservatory here in the fall, Miss Dorothy Kirkbride left here this morning for Juniata College, where she will act as a member of the musical faculty of the summer school. Miss Kirkbride will return here August 18.

Miss Mareline McElwee is another New Wilmington student who plans to attend summer school this year. Miss McElwee will study at State College.

Miss Esther Cummings of New York City is spending the summer in New Wilmington.

Loeffler Boys Show Golf Tricks

Perform On Ellwood City Golf Course For Large Crowd Of Fans

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 18.—One of the most important and interesting matches ever played on the local links was witnessed by devotees of golf when four members of the Loeffler family played brother against brother and cousins against cousins.

A large gallery of enthusiasts was assembled on the links at 2 o'clock when the first match, Archie Loeffler of San Antonio, Texas, against Freddy Loeffler, the local pro, was scheduled. This match, which was won by Archie with a score of 76 to 79, was followed by a foursome, Freddy and Archie against Walter and R. E. Loeffler, both of Pittsburgh, all pros.

In the foursome the local pro, Freddy Loeffler, and his brother Archie easily defeated the other pair.

The local golfers were amazed at the facility and skill with which the Loefflers handled the clubs. Archie Loeffler, the star of the match, made six birdies during the playing and just missed an eagle on both No. 2 and No. 3 holes, on No. 3 putting for an eight-foot putt for a three.

Great Dane Brings Life Nearer to Helen Keller

MISS HELEN KELLER, as she appeared on her arrival from Europe with her Great Dane, the gift of a Stuttgart, Germany, publisher.

(International Illustrated News)
By SHIRLEY KIRKE
International Illustrated News Staff Writer

NEW YORK.—Blind, deaf and dumb from her earliest years, Helen Keller has just opened another avenue of communication with the world. It consists of the Great Dane pictured above, a gift to her from Robert Lutz, publisher, of Stuttgart, Germany.

"All my life I have been interested in animals," said Miss Keller on her arrival from abroad. "Since early childhood, life has fascinated me; I have visited nearly all of the important zoological parks and menageries, making the acquaintance of African buffalos, hippopotami, sea lions and even prairie wolves and coyotes.

"All these contacts have helped to make the world I live in vivid and vastly interesting."

America's most famous blind woman author, teacher—and inspiration to all unfortunates!—explained that the Great Dane beside her is a breed noted for its loyalty and intelligence. She will train him to be her eyes, and through his canine observation she will visualize what goes on around her in nature.

For life—the simple, human, personal, everyday things which we don't talk about—is very wonderful to Helen Keller!

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of Stanley And Livingstone—I

AN EVENT THAT ATTRACTED WORLD-WIDE INTEREST IN THE EARLY 'SEVENTIES WAS THE SEARCH FOR DR. DAVID LIVINGSTONE, A BRITISH EXPLORER, WHO HAD PENETRATED THE THEN UNKNOWN WILDS OF THE INTERIOR OF AFRICA, LOOKING FOR THE HEAD WATERS OF THE NILE, AND HAD NOT BEEN HEARD OF FOR SEVERAL YEARS.

THE MAN WHO FOUND LIVINGSTONE WAS HENRY MORTON STANLEY, AN AMERICAN BY ADOPTION. STANLEY, WHOSE REAL NAME WAS JOHN ROWLANDS, WAS BORN IN WALES. AT THE AGE OF THREE HE WAS PLACED IN THE POOR HOUSE, WHERE HE REMAINED FOR TEN YEARS. WHEN FIFTEEN YEARS OLD, THE LAD SHIPPED TO AMERICA AS A CABIN-BOY.

IN NEW ORLEANS HE MADE THE ACQUAINTANCE OF A MERCHANT NAMED STANLEY, WHO BECAME INTERESTED IN THE YOUNG WAIF AND ADOPTED HIM. THE BOY TOOK THE NAME OF HIS BENEFACTOR.

A FEW YEARS AFTERWARD HIS ADOPTED FATHER DIED, LEAVING NO WILL, AND YOUNG STANLEY WAS THROWN ON HIS OWN RESOURCES. AT THIS TIME CAME THE OUTBREAK OF THE CIVIL WAR, AND STANLEY JOINED THE CONFEDERATE FORCES. LATER, HE WAS CAPTURED BY THE FEDERALS.

TOMORROW—STANLEY GOES TO AFRICA.

New Castle Breaks Even In Twin Bill

Canton Hands New Castle Surprise Jolt By Driving Haley To Showers After Centennials Crack In Free-Hitting Game Punctuated By Ragged Play; Gibson Pitches Against Rodenbaugh And Edenburg Of Twilight League Drops Tilt To New Castle

By ED. FRITZ

New Castle lost an O. & P. game to Canton, 10 to 4, and captured an exhibition tilt, 4 to 1, from Edenburg of the Twilight circuit Saturday afternoon at Centennial field. Ragged baseball featured the O. & P. circuit and the exhibition game of seven innings was played in the remarkably sensational time of 35 minutes. While Underwood was as wild as a hare in the O. & P. setto, he outpitched Haley, who was sent to the showers after eight innings, but in the second contest of the day Gibson outpitched Rodenbaugh and New Castle had no trouble turning back the aggregation from Edenburg.

Canton got away to a one-run lead in the first inning of the initial portion of the twin bill when Scott tripled to right and scored on Arndt's single to left. A second run was tallied in the third when Evans tripled to right and Curtis lifted a two-base blow to left. New Castle showed a flash of life in the last of the third after Graham doubled to left and worked his way around the paths and scored on McCullough's hit.

Canton broke loose in the fifth when New Castle cracked and after that the game was never in doubt, and ragged playing, equally as well as hits off Haley can be ascribed. The carnival of run getting started when Kenny Hogan took it too easy on Ardnt's fly and dropped the ball. Harsh reached first and Arndt advanced on Haley's error. The next two batters went out on fly balls, but when McFarland singled to right Arndt and Harsh scored. Underwood tripled, scoring McFarland, and Haley hit Evans. Curtis cleaned the bases with a double and the deluge subsided when Scott grounded out at first.

Chance to Cheer

A single, free pass and double scored Arndt and Zeiger in the sixth, after which New Castle had a chance to cheer when Grimes tripled in the seventh and scored on Red Leonard's sacrifice. McCullough singled to left and scored on McCoy's out, short to first. That was as far as the Centennials got in the scoring column, but Canton landed on Grimes, who relieved Haley in the ninth and Arndt, who doubled, scored on Harsh's single, after which Grimes gave way to Coen, who retired the next three men through a line drive, short to first and right to first.

Hogan and Leonard went hitless, and while five errors were chalked against the Centennials, the game was featured by three double plays by Grimes, Shannon and McCoy. McCoy featured with three hits and McCullough got two, but the punch when needed was lacking and 12 runners expired on the paths. Canton produced safe blows when needed and Underwood bore down on the pill when New Castle threatened to score.

Edenburg Loses

In the last part of the bill New Castle scored a lone run in the first when Grimes walked, took second on a passed ball and scored on Leonard's blow to right. They crossed the plate twice in the third on Graham's double, a wild pitch and stolen base, which was the home plate. The third run was scored when Leonard walked, advanced to second on McCullough's single and romped home when Shannon hit for a single.

The last run came in the fifth when Leonard singled, Rodenbaugh tossed a wild pitch and McCullough brought Red home with a timely single. Edenburg got their only run in the seventh when Gibson gave Jones a ticket to first, a passed ball sent him to second and Guinaugh hit to right field. While Rodenbaugh was on the losing end, he held New Castle to six hits. Leonard, Graham and McCullough were the hitting luminaries of the Centennials, while Jones and Guinaugh excelled for Edenburg. NEW YORK, June 18.—Although he is in the throes of a batting slump—he hit for little better than .200 on the Yankees' western trip—Babe Ruth is five games and three homers ahead of his last year's home run record. His slugging teammate, Lou Gehrig, is just about keeping pace with his home run swatting during 1927. Ruth got his 25th homer of the current campaign against the Browns yesterday and Gehrig contributed No. 16.

College Crews Ready For Race At Poughkeepsie

(International News Service)

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 18.—It is only a matter of one short day now and the zero hour will be at hand for the seven varsity crews which will go to the starting line in tomorrow's inter-collegiate championship race.

The California eight is believed to have a splendid opportunity to wrest from Columbia the crown which the New York crew won a year ago. If California should win it will be the first time that the "native sons" have ever captured a Poughkeepsie race, although they have tried many times since they first entered a crew here in 1921.

Washington, Navy and Syracuse also are primed for victory in the big race.

Sluggers Pound Pearson For Six Runs In Seventh Frame

KETCHUM SIGNED BY NEW CASTLE

MASSILLON, June 18.—New Castle chalked up its fifth victory over Beaver Falls yesterday, eight to seven, coming from behind to hammer Pearson for six runs in the seventh inning. Up until that session Pearson was master of the Centennials. Mosely hurled for New Castle, but was taken from the batting order for a pinch hitter in the seventh and Ketchum, signed to replace Hackey Haley, finished the game.

Wearing Massillon Baseball Uniforms

Players which are representing New Castle in the O. & P. League, the pennant of which New Castle will win for the first half are wearing Massillon uniforms. It would be a splendid idea if the name of New Castle could be emblazoned on the uniforms which apparently seemed frayed. The team hasn't made a dollar last year or this season and a little civic interest, even in the direction of baseball might help to bring the desired change from the name Massillon to New Castle on the uniforms.

A Fielding Marvel — By Feg Murray

This is the old, old story of a hard-working plodder finally coming to his own. And if the Cincinnati Reds win the National league pennant this year the saga of Horace Ford will rival that of Cyril Walker, the 100 to 1 shot who won the United States open golf championship from Bobby Jones in -1924.

Horace Hills Ford showed his independence early by living in New Haven and not going to Yale. Instead he chose Tufts college and there studied chemical engineering and baseball with the accent on the latter. In 1919 he played with New Haven of the Eastern league and then got into ten games with the Boston Braves. That was ten seasons ago and since then he has been discarded by the Braves, Phillies and Dodgers, played second, third and short, has never batted higher than .288 and has stolen only ten bases. Yet now he is looked upon as one of the best shortstops in the National league and, as an important cog in he Ford-to-Critz-to-Pipp combination he is making the other clubs in the Heydler circuit look foolish when it comes to double plays.

At this writing the Reds have made an even 80 two-ply killings in 55 games and should easily break the Senators major league record of 182 if they keep up their snappy fielding. Ford has proved himself a far steadier shortstop than Travis Jackson of the Giants, considered by many as baseball's greatest. He hasn't such a wonderful arm but his throws are accurate, he covers plenty of ground and is death to fly balls.

It has been said that if the Reds had only had Ford forf the whole of the 1926 season (he played 90 games with Minenapolis before Manager Hendricks got him) they would have played in the world series that year instead of the Cardinals. Maybe 1928 is their year. Anyway it seems to be the year of the new Fords

Robertson Asserts Olympic Team Will Give Fine Account

Lawson Robertson, Coach Of American Olympic Team, Praises Material This Year

America Better In Sprints And Will Hold Own With Foreign Field Stars

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, June 18.—Dr. Otto Peltzer is likely to be only a minor factor in the Olympic games at Amsterdam. Charley Borah probably would be permitted to run in the final tryouts at Boston next month, if he recovered from his illness in the meantime. Paavo Nurmi is in excellent form again and Edwin Wide is a better runner today than he was in the 1924 Olympics. The American Olympic team of 1928 is potentially 10 per cent stronger than the teams of 1920 and 1924 and unfortunately, so is the foreign opposition.

Many Records Broken

These were some of the observations today of Lawson Robertson, head coach of the American Olympic team, hard upon Saturday's sectional trials in which world's and American records were scattered all over the premises.

Peltzer, according to information received by Robertson from abroad has injured himself so badly training that he plans to start in neither the 800 or 1,500-metre races, in both of which he holds the accepted world's records. The Herr Doktor, it seems, will have less than four weeks training for the international games, when he recovers, and has decided to enter only the 400-metre hurdle race. His projected withdrawal from the middle distances considerably lightens the load under which Lloyd Hahn, who ran 1.52 1-5 to an American 800-metre record on Saturday, will labor at Amsterdam.

May Pick Hussey

Other pertinent observations by the noted trainer were as follows: Roland Locke, judged on his current form, will be hard pressed to make the team. Frank Hussey seems reasonably sure of breaking into the sprint qualifications with the Californians and Aubrey Bracey and George Simpson. There is little to choose between the latter pair, although Bracey beat the other twice in the N. C. A. A. sprints. Chet Bowman, held back by injuries, will not make the team, although he is the current century champion. Jackson Scholz was overtrained but is coming back nicely. The defeat of Leo Lermond at 5,000 metres by MacAuley Smith will do the former more good than harm.

"Lermond has been winning his races too easily," Robertson declared. "Now he knows there is more to distance running than mere strength. Smith's time was the best ever made by an American, although there was a trick record once credited to a man by the name of Hunter. It is believed now that he run a lap short."

Robertson bases his belief that America will be stronger than at any time since 1912 on the following summarization of the prospective ensemble:

Team Well Balanced

Sprinters, at least as good as those of 1920 and 1924, even if Borah is definitely out of competition; 400-metres, probably the best runners we ever had in this race, with Emerson Spencer favored by the system of running the affair in Lanes and Barbuti estimated as a better man than Reidpath was; 800 and 1,500 metres, considerably better if only for the fact that Hahn must be reckoned a real contender in both races; 5,000-metres, improvement noted again in the running of Smith and Lermond who beat Johnny Romig easily, although latter ran as well on Saturday as he did in placing third in this race in 1924.

Jumps, just as strong as in the two preceding Olympics; shot put, definitely better; discus, just as good; steeplechase and 10,000-metres, no worse; marathon, better because of Joie Ray's appearance in this event; 1,600-metre relay, should be very good because of the calibre of the quarter mile field; 400-metre relay, will be excellent and must be to beat Germans who recently tied our record of 41 seconds; javelin throw, a ten per cent improvement but not quite up to some of the foreigners, including Zeppes, Pentila and a New Zealander, all of whom are getting distances beyond 220 feet; hurdlers, just a little bit better than the best of the foreign field.

Radios defeated the Grantham Midgets on Lehigh field Saturday. The game was featured by the hitting of Maki, Wyman, Green, Douglas and Ponion.

Tennis Tourney At Pittsburgh Starts Today

Western Pennsylvania Championship Tennis Tournament Under Way Today

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—A tournament to determine the tennis championships of western Pennsylvania in men's singles and doubles and women's singles, was scheduled to start here this afternoon.

Byron Baur of Erie, 1927 West Penn champion and former Pitt team captain, will face stiff competition in the men's singles. Ninety players, nearly all from the Pittsburgh district, have this event.

Among the most formidable contenders for Baur's crown were three of his former teammates at University of Pittsburgh, the O'Loughlin brothers, Dave, John and Billy. Others rated among the possible winners were Jimmy O'Connor, former Duquesne university star; Dr. William McEllroy, Jack Moore and William Lloyd, all of Pittsburgh.

Rainfall this morning threatened to cause postponement of the matches.

Baur, who drew a bye in the first round matches, was to face Edwin Clark, Pittsburgh, in a second round clash, expected to be the first victim of the champion.

Four Games In Church League

Four games are on tap tonight in the New Castle Church League. The games will start at six o'clock, daylight saving time.

The Central Christians will meet the First Christians at Lehigh field. The Central Presbyterians will play the Mahoning M. E. at Scotland Lane. The Grace and Congregational team will meet the Croton team at the Mahoningtown field. The Hakoah team will meet the Epworth M. E. team at the Colonial grounds.

Junior League

The Mud Divers downed the Lawrence Juniors 3 to 1 in a Junior Recreation league game played at the P. & L. E. field on Friday, June 15. Picarro on the hill for the Mud Divers allowed but one hit and fanned eight men. The Mud Divers had four hits off Wilson.

The Mud Divers defeated the Vagabonds in a game played on Thursday afternoon, June 14, at the P. & L. E grounds by the score of 16 to 4.

The C. C. Sluggers downed the Mud Divers 14 to 7 in a game played at the Glasser field on Saturday morning. Soho on the knoll for the Sluggers dished up but four hits and fanned ten men. The Sluggers combed Dominick for 12 hits.

The C. C. Sluggers won an exhibition game from the Spring Hill Sluggers 13 to 1 in a game played on Saturday afternoon. Kolcz featured the game for the Sluggers by allowing but two hits.

Rocco Hopes To Prove He Can Beat Levinsky

Levinsky Started Out Under Name Of Williams But Couldn't Cash In, So He Used His Real Name; Has Fought Every Good Boxer In The Game; Rocco Has Been Showing Lots Of Promise; Jolly Bowl To Be Scene Of Battle

By ED. FRITZ

Battling Levinsky, not a "one nighter", but a heavyweight, clever and fast, tricky and an ex-champion, who is proving a stumbling block to the boys who dream of some day hearing the band play "Hail the Hero Comes" or "Collect the Green as You Edge Your Way Out" is coming to town.

Yea, coming to town to attempt to prove that his defeat of Emmett Rocco at Akron wasn't a fluke, but a real event. He's coming to the Jolly Bowl, this city, next Monday night. Yesterday he sent his telegram of acceptance to Willyum Jolly, the "big noise" at the Jolly Bowl, Sampson and Grant streets.

The battler minus the scars and battle marks of milling with fists, is one of the best known boxers in the world. He has met Dempsey, Carpentier, Tunney, Gibbons and every boxer who ever drew a "banner" on a sports page. He made himself famous by changing his moniker to his right name.

Couldn't Cash In

He started out under the name of Barney Williams, but there were so many Williams no one paid to see him fight.

"My name is Levinsky. I think I'll wear it into the ring," he mused, and it worked like a charm.

The name got the crowd and the crowd followed Levinsky. He prospered in ability and finance, and finally won the light-heavyweight championship.

He got so much money he didn't want to fight, hung up the gloves, but when speculation hit him in the pocketbook decided to recuperate.

Levinsky got into condition, secured a hustler for a manager and he is boxing almost as often as healthy people take a bath.

Was Given Decision

Not so long ago he stepped over to Akron to mingle with that good young Emmett Rocco, Ellwood City.

The I. N. S. gave the decision to Levinsky, likewise a couple of the Akron newspapers, but not all the outside writers agreed.

As Rocco had been upsetting all of the upstarts around here, he felt somewhat hot north of the breast and south of the chin.

He didn't like to read those stories which said Levinsky had won, and finally offered to fight Levinsky in this city.

Now folks, when Emmett Rocco loses his temper step aside. That boy means business. There's no buncombe about that.

But of course Emmett being a gentleman in and out of the ring, wanted to battle in the ring, so Bill Jolly approached his manager thusly:

"I've got a Jolly Bowl at Sampson and Grant streets, built especially for deserving boys like you," murmured suave Willyum.

"It will seat thousands, and you're the type of he-man the people hereabouts would like to see get somewhere.

Women To See Bout

"Walk into my bowl and I'll give you a nice chunk of real money, providing you really battle Battling Levinsky, who beat you," suggestively said Jolly.

That "who beat you" wasn't liked by Mr. Rocco's manager, one Joe Cumo, and instantly he piped up: "We'll fight him!"

So folks, if you care for a good heavyweight puncher against a good, clever heavyweight ex-champ, you'll get it served hot next Monday night.

Jolly has six or seven thousand seats for the asking and the coin and he especially says: "Bring the wife".

You see, there are a lot of men who like to witiness boxing, and there are a lot of women who would like to but accommodations heretofore in New Castle have not been suitable for the feminists. Jolly's Bowl has changed this all around.

Homestead Grays Here Wednesday

Grays Hope To Turn Back New Castle In Twilight Game

MARTIN DIHIGO TO PLAY THIRD BASE

The Homestead Grays, who dropped a thrilling game to the New Castle club a few weeks ago, will return on next Wednesday evening and attempt to avenge the beating. Sam Streeter, the Gray's hurler who lost that game, is eager to try his luck against the local lads again, and it is likely Manager Posey of the Grays will give the pitching assignment to his southpaw.

That is the only game Streeter has lost this season. His record up until last Saturday was eight victories against one reverse. Since being defeated by New Castle Streeter has come through six games successfully, an indication that he is going to be harder to defeat again.

The Homestead Grays, in spite of being retarded by the unfavorable weather which struck this vicinity 10 days ago, have managed to record 50 victories. This mark was reached last Friday and they were able to boast of 50 victories in 54 games.

The Grays will be in better shape when they come back to New Castle. On their last appearance Martin Dihigo, their Cuban third baseman, was just recovering from a severe attack of the flu. He is now in good condition and the fans will see him at his best.

Dihigo had the reputation of being the peer of all colored baseball players in the East last season when he played with the Original Cuban Stars, and with him back in good form the Grays are much stronger, as the Cuban is a power both offensively and defensively.

He fields, throws and bats like a big leaguer. Major league players who have seen him perform say he is a replica of Pie Traynor, third baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Dihigo is built somewhat on the same lines as Traynor, being a rangy individual. He fields in the same style as Traynor and throws just as hard. Dihigo seemed to be at his best last week, when his work featured in nearly every game which the Grays took part in.

The Two Fastest Human Beings

Spectators at the Olympic tryouts in the Eastern division will get the thrill of the lives when Charley Paddock (left) and Charley Borah fight it out for supremacy in the century event at Yankee Stadium. Veteran track men will not be surprised if the present record of 9 3/5 seconds is smashed by one Charley or the other.

Yanks-Cardinals Holding Leads

Begins To Look Like Repetition Of 1926 Classic As Yanks And Cards Lead

BABE RUTH HITS HIS 25TH HOMER

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 18.—It looks like 1926 all over again—the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Yankees in the world series, sporting an eight-game winning streak and a lead of three games over Cincinnati, the Cardinals have all of their pitchers in shape and are hitting the ball on the nose. The Yankees, although held to an even break in Chicago and St. Louis, increased their lead over the Athletics from seven to eight and a half games during the western trip and are nearly 200 percentage points ahead of their last year's mark at this stage of the race.

Pitchers Overworked.

The Yanks won nine and lost four in the west. Whether the Mackmen still have a chance to stop them will be determined tomorrow when the two teams clash in a double-header. The A's with six wins in their last eight games, are all set for a killing.

With Lucas and Luque out, Cincinnati's overworked pitching staff has collapsed. The tip-off on the Reds was furnished when they lost three straight to the Phillies. The Phils, all hopped up, have copped five of their last six starts.

The Boston Braves, who spurted for a time under Rogers Hornsby's management, have dropped eight games in a row. Washington has won six out of eight. The other teams in both leagues are barging along at their usual pace.

Vance Shines.

Warmer weather has resulted in better pitching. Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn strikeout king, whiffed 15 men and yielded only three hits in whitewashing the Cubs yesterday, 4 to 0. Waite Hoyt hung up his ninth victory in ten starts, holding the Browns to three hits and winning 6 to 2 with the aid of Ruth's 25th homer and Gehrig's 16th.

The third three-hit performance of the day was turned in by Sad Samuel Jones of the Senators. He blanked Detroit, 12 to 0, and hit a home run in the bargain. The Nats nicked four Tiger pitchers for 16 hits.

Burleigh Grimes, once a Giant and now a Pirate, also pitched fine ball. He limited New York to five hits and no runs, while the Bucs rolled up six tallies.

The Cardinals scored five runs off Jakie May in the first inning and trimmed the Reds 6 to 2 in a game curtailed to five innings by rain.

The Athletics captured a ding-dong tilt with Cleveland, 8 to 7, despite a five-run rally by the Indians in the eighth.

Mahoning Team Defeated 8 To 7

Domestic and Boone pitched against each other Saturday and Wampum won from Mahoning eight to seven. Domenic was hit nine times and Boone allowed ten hits. Two errors were chalked against Mahoning, one against Wampum. Robertson, Grinnen and McCloskey each poled a brace of hits. One of Grennen's went for a home run. The box score:

Ritticisms

BY BILL RITT

The office stenog got a tough break today. She didn't mind losing her vanity case, but there was a bathing suit in it.

* * *

The suit was a gift from a girl friend. It came by postcard.

* * *

The postoffice department thought it was an extra stamp and sent a refund of three cents.

* * *

When our stenog tried it on she had to borrow a microscope to see if it fit. It was nothing to nothing—two ways.

* * *

Her old man found it on his birthday and got sore. He thought someone had sent him a dainty handkerchief.

* * *

One day the stenog forgot she had it on and stepped into a shower bath. When it shrank, the trunks nearly strangled her.

* * *

However, she finally got it off and hung it across a lit cigarette to dry.

EDDIE ROUSH

After 12 years of phenomenal work in the outfield, Eddie Roush is still showing National League gardners how to chase fly balls.

Although Eddie is now below the .300 mark in batting, a mark he has failed to surpass but once in his major league career, there isn't a center fielder in the National League that can chase them better.

Roush has been in the National League since 1916. For many years he was considered the best center fielder in the circuit, and but for Tris Speaker would have led both leagues.

5 Record Months

THE GREATEST IN 20 YEARS OF WILLYS-OVERLAND HISTORY

MAY SALES SET NEW HIGH MARK

With May reaching a new high peak—Whippet and Willys-Knight sales continue to mount, month after month, week after week, day after day.

The five months just completed were by far the greatest in all Willys-Overland history. In spite of the fact that April had produced the greatest sales on record, May established a new mark with an increase of 14% above the previous record-breaking month.

The perfected Whippet Four, at greatly reduced prices, is a tremendous national success. The new Whippet Six—the world's lowest price six-cylinder motor car—is paralleling the Whippet Four in popular acceptance.

The recently announced low price of the Willys-Knight Standard Six has resulted in greatly increased demand for this splendid car. Sales of the Special Six and the Great Six continue in unabated volume.

SEVEN PERSONS BITTEN BY DOG

MANSFIELD, O., June 18.—Police today continued their hunt for a mad dog which went on a rampage here and bit seven persons.

Armed with shotguns, police have been scouring the city and vicinity for the animal. Warnings have been issued to owners of dogs to watch their pets.

A. H. Warner and Jacob Weigler were severely bitten by the dog and are receiving special treatment.

Sidney A. Foltz was bitten by the same animal.

A stray dog attacked the little daughter of S. H. Widders on a farm north of here. Widders killed the animal with a shotgun but it was not the dog which is being hunted here.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 18.—Most of the active stocks started the new week at a lower range of prices, but the volume of stock offerings at the low prices was comparatively small, and moderate rallies were promptly recorded in the motor, oil and steel shares in the early trading today.

The Standard Oils again attracted attention by their strength and activity. Atlantic Refining reached a new high on the move at 129 and Standard of New York and New Jersey being turned over rapidly at fractionally higher prices. The shorts were again actively covering and the "pool pets" were given more substantial support by the professionals and pools. United States Steel and Radio were under selling pressure near the end of the first hour, and drifted slightly below Saturday's final price.

The call loan renewal rate was 5½ per cent.

A few crash in Bancitaly to 110, down 26½ points unsettled the market in this period, and the market leaders reacted a point or two, as selling pressure crowded the big board. The market slowed up under selling pressure however and refused to be stampeded into another wild rush to lower prices.

New Castle Men To Be Honored

Penn-Ohio Accident Prevention Record To Be Recognized

NEW CASTLE AND GREENVILLE LEAD

An outstanding achievement in accident prevention work will be celebrated Tuesday evening in McKelvey's tea room, Youngstown, when 190 Penn-Ohio employes, comprising four of the seven teams of the line and electrical departments, will be feted by the company for working a period of six months without a single man losing on hour because of accident.

The four teams represent the substation workers from all parts of the system, the line and meter departments of New Castle, the line and meter departments of Greenville and the line department of Girard with a part of the meter department of Youngstown.

Two of these teams, those from New Castle and Greenville, have the further distinction of never having had a lost-time accident since the continuous accident prevention contest was inaugurated November 1, 1926.

In the six-month period, marked by Tuesday's dinner meeting, the 190 men on the four teams worked a total of 307,584 man-hours, or equivalent to more than 100 years of steady work by a single man.

During the dinner a program of music will be given by the Penn-Ohio orchestra under the direction of B. F. Wood. Following the dinner Frank W. Funk, chief engineer of the Penn-Ohio, will preside over a program of speeches and entertainment features. The chief talks will be given by C. S. MacCalla, vice president and general manager of the P.-O. and Isaiah Gordon, of the Bureau of Safety of Chicago.

Among other features provided for the evening by Roy Zinstine, safety supervisor under whose direction the safety contest is held, will be a rural sketch by F. E. Thomas and Roy Whittenberger, operators on the Youngstown street car lines, whose comedy act has scored a hit on many occasions.

Four Youths Are Barred As Witnesses

BUTLER, Pa., June 18.—At a hearing in Butler court Judge John R. Henninger announced that four young men involved in liquor charges would be barred from appearing as witnesses in any case hereafter, as long as he presided. The youths are Paul McCool, Leeland Livingston, Leonard C. Graham and Henry E. Ekin, all of the Kildoo mine No. 2 district, east of Harrisville. The first youth had been arrested for possessing intoxicating liquor, and when the other three were called as defense witnesses they were placed under arrest.

Four Women Lose Lives Trying To Span Ocean Area

Ruth Elder Had Lucky Break In Fight To Azores; Amelia Earhart Conquers Atlantic

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 18.—Six women have risked their lives in attempts to be the first of their sex to span the ocean by air. Three perished when their planes were overwhelmed in the Atlantic, and a fourth, Mildred Doran, was lost in the Pacific last year in the Dole flight to Hawaii.

Another, Ruth Elder, was rescued with her pilot, George Haldeman, after being forced down into the sea off the Azores.

Embarking from Upavon, England, last August with Canada as her goal, the Princess Ludwig Lowenstein-Wertheim was the first woman to be lost. No trace was ever found of her and her companions, Captain Leslie Hamilton and Colonel E. F. Minchin.

Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson, determined to carry out a goodwill flight to Denmark, took off from Harbor Grace last December and disappeared. With her were Brice Goldsborough, Lieutenant Oskar Omdal and Fred Koehler.

Three months ago the Hon. Elsie Mackay and Captain Walter Hinchliffe were lost when they tried to fly to New York from Cranwell airdrome in England.

New Regulations For Public School Teachers Are Seen

"The time is not far distant," according to Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools. "when teachers in the public schools will be required to have four year college training back of them, in order to be certificated. The concensus of opinion among the committee which met in Harrisburg on last Friday was that this standard would be reached in a very short time."

The Universe is so vast that the contemplation of it staggers the human mind. But we are constantly learning more and more of its wonders. The Geologist reads the story of creation in the rock strata of the Earth, while the Astronomer reads it in the stars. Together they have opened up a realm wherein abound the richest of intellectual treasures. The more we learn about the works of creation the closer we come in contact with the mind of the Creator.

At all times of the year there are objects in the sky worthy of study and which must always excite our wonder and admiration. Among these is Arcturus, one of the giants of the Universe, which is visible near the meridian any clear evening this month. Arcturus is supposed to mean "Bear Driver," a name given to it by the ancients because it follows the Great Bear around the north pole star. Following a line indicated by the last two stars in the handle of the Big Dipper, which is the most prominent part of the constellation of the Great Bear, will lead to Arcturus. It is more than a hundred times larger than our Sun and about forty-five light years farther away. If you were to place an ordinary sized orange beside a globe six feet in diameter it would give you an idea of the difference in size between the two bodies.

Arcturus can be easily recognized by its orange colored rays. When seen even through a small telescope it is the most colorful object in the heavens. It is believed to be much older than our sun, as suns pass through different stages of color, viz: White, yellow, orange and red. White suns are said to be the youngest while red suns are the oldest—that is, nearer the cooling off stage. Our sun belongs to the yellow class, while Arcturus has passed on to the orange class.

If you were to start on a journey through space toward Arcturus, traveling with the speed of light, say 186,330 miles a second it would take you about 45 years to get there. If you were to get as close to Arcturus as we are to our sun you would be blinded by a golden daylight enormously brighter than the daylight you had been accustomed to on the earth, but you could not live a minute. You would instantly be roasted to a crisp.

Arcturus is often called "Job's Star" because it is mentioned in the book of Job when God said to Job: "Canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?" The sons here mentioned probably refer to the constellation Bootes of which Arcturus is the most prominent star.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

About two years ago the then mayor, William H. Dunlap, conducted a campaign against so-called "art magazines" on the news stands of the city. Through his action and the action of the police department these most unnecessary pieces of sewer art and literature disappeared from the stands.

Other cities took up the idea and all over Pennsylvania similar campaigns were conducted. But there seems to have been a relapse here in New Castle, a breaking out afresh of the printed nastiness, nor is this the fault of any official, merely the attempt upon the part of some of the stands to traffic anew in periodicals that seem to have been conceived by a pervert, for the edification of morons.

It is hard to conceive of any person, male or female, deliberately setting himself down to write such work as was noted this week. writer's ideals can rise higher t his works and if this be true, t the morals of the ones responsible would assay at a little less than one half of one per cent.

Out with it, and any of its ill-famed relatives that may have strayed onto any stand here. Reading it leaves one with a dark brown taste in his mouth and the feeling that he needs a fumigant.

The motorist really came into his own on Saturday and Sunday. Forty eight hours of sunshine and blue skies brought the cars out like the sun bring out the rosebuds, and until midnight Sunday, the roads leading in and out of New Castle were jammed. Accidents were few, considering the number of cars and the weather man is to be congratulated for holding off the rain until the week end was nearly over.

The First Presbyterians will probably argue that the rain should have been held off another day. This is their annual frolic at the Field Club with a dinner at seven o'clock, and Jack Waddington has been planning on a big day.

New Castle seems to have another swimming ace. Charles Hennon, son of Clyde Hennon of this city is home from Staunton Military Academy and from a perusal of the Staunton records it appears that young Hennon was something of a flash in the water there. In the spring meets his work was largely responsible for Staunton's winning the South Atlantic championship and during the meets Hennon broke seven school records.
